Report Complaints That Trend Is Backward In Newton Playgrounds

Commissioner Wilson Says Smaller Appropriations Reduce Supervision

The first printed report of the Newton Recreation Commission was issued on Tuesday. In it Commissioner of Recreation F. Ewing Wilson, calls attention to the fact that this is the first printed report issued by this department, or its predecessor, the Playground Department since 1930, and that in the 1930 report the need of expansion in supervision of Newton playgrounds was stressed. Instead of more supervision, as was advocated in 1930, Mr. Wilson's report states that our playgrounds in recent years have been receiving less supervision.

In 1929 the city had 27 playgrounds with an area of 202.47 acres. In that year the amount appropriated in the budget for the Playground Department was $104,933 and a staff of 78 directors and supervisors was at the playgrounds. In 1939 the appropria year the amount appropriated in the budget for the Playground Department was $104,933 and a staff of 78 directors and supervisors was at the playgrounds. In 1939 the appropriation for the Recreation Department was $89,616, and the city had 34 playgrounds with an area of 329,66 acres. Of these 25 had supervision, and the number of directors and supervisors was 74. Mr. Wilson comments that the city is going backward instead of forward in playground supervision. He states there has been an increase of 47 per cent during the 10 year period in the number of playgrounds supervised, but a decrease of 14.16 per cent in the annual appropriation for the department, and a decrease of 5.13 per cent in the number of supervisors.

Referring to the need of providing recreation for grown-ups as well as for children, Commissioner Wilson says in the report:

"One of the main problems which the Recreation Department now faces is recreation for an older age-group," he stated. "Newton has long been famous for its children's playgrounds and has also done much for adults but we should be progressing more rapidly in the broader field of recreation. Changing conditions, such as shorter working hours and lack of gainful employment have produced a large number of recreation-conscious people whose needs we should attempt to meet. The change from Playground Department to Recreation Department is simply in keeping with the trend of the time in preparing for enlarged fields of activity.

"The only expansion that seems preparing for enlarged fields of activity.

"The only expansion that seems necessary in the way of playgrounds at the present time is at the new Franklin School on Derby st. in West Newton and at the Oak Hill School in Oak Hill Village. Both of these communities feel that a very real need exists in their neighborhood, there being no adequate playground near either school. At Oak Hill Village it will require clearing of trees and several thousand yards of fill. At the Franklin School it is a matter of grading. These projects are large enough to be undertaken by the WPA and, in my judgment, are worthy of serious consideration. It must, however, be kept in mind that any addition to our present playground system makes additional appropriation for mainte. (Continued on page 8)

Newton Members of Legislature Get Assignments

At the opening of the Legislature on New Year's Day President Goodwin of the State Senate announced the appointment of Senator Arthur W. Hollis of Newton as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. He was also chairman of this committee at the preceding sesion of the Legislature. Senator Hollis is also a member of the Committee on Mercantile Affairs, and the Committee on Metropolitan Affairs.

Speaker Christian A. Herter announced the appointment of Representative Douglass B. Francis to the House Ways & Means Committee. He is the only one of the 4 Representatives from Newton who has served in a former session of the Legislature. Representative Margaret Spear was appointed a member of the Committee on Education. Representative Clarence Colby was appointed a member of the Committee on State Administration, and the Committee Loomis Patrick was appointed a member of the Committee on Outer State Administration, and the Committee Loomis Patrick was appointed a member of the Committee on Public Health. Colby and Patrick are among the few new members appointed to two committees.

Warner Eustis Is Chosen Alderman From Ward 7

From Ward 7

The Newton Board of Aldermen held the first meeting of the year at City Hall on Wednesday afternoon, January 1. Warner Eustis of 260 Franklin st., was elected by the Board to succeed Clarence Colby as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 7. Colby resigned because of his election as Representative to the Legislature. Eustis was nominated by Alderman Lockwood of Ward 7. Lockwood gave the following information about the new Alderman.

"Mr. Eustis was born in Newton in 1895, educated in the schools of Newton and graduated from Harvard College in 1918. Entering business he became Treasurer of J. P. Eustis Mfg. Co. in 1923, later becoming associated with the Kendall Co., with which concern he holds the position of a staff officer in connection with research and development.

"Mr. Eustis has been associated with the churches of Newton and for several years active in Community Chest effort. He has travelled widely, is a member of many organizations, as well as societies of educational and scientific purpose. He bears a splendid reputation as a civici-minded citizen of high character who has devoted much time to the well-being of our city and the maintenance of its high standards.

"I take much pleasure, Mr. President, in placing in nomination, to complete the unexpired term of Alderman Colby, the name of Warner Eustis, of 260 Franklin st., Ward 7, and earnestly urge his election."

The Aldermen re-elected Francis Newhall as City Treasurer and Collector, for a term of one year, and (Continued on page 8)

Community Chest Women's Division Is Well Organized

Intensification of activity by leaders in the 1941 Newton Community Chest Campaign which will open January 17 was reported this week at Campaign headquarters by general chairman William V. M. Fawcett. Starting the New Year with a resolve to see to it that the needs of the people of Newton are met through its own agencies and those of Greater Boston, leaders in every division were at work completing their personnel and making final preparations before the beginning of general solicitation. Members of the women's service committee under the leadership of Mrs. Durham Jones and Mrs. F. J. Shepard were hard at work preparing supplies and assisting with the tremendous clerical task. and Mrs. F. J. Shepard were hard at work preparing supplies and assisting with the tremendous clerical task of getting pledge cards ready. Distribution of supplies is in the hands of Mrs. F. Brittain Kennedy. General office service is headed by Mrs. William F. King; and Mrs. Joseph F. Wogan has charge of getting 35,000 red feathers, emblem of generous giving, ready for solicitors. Killed In Fall Off Railroad Bridge At West Newton

William Walsh, 44, of 15 Prospect st., West Newton, was fatally injured on Thursday morning about 10.40, when he fell from the bridge over the Boston & Albany tracks at Washington st., West Newton. He plunged over 30 feet and landed on the granite wall alongside the railroad tracks. He received fractures of the skull, pelvis and left leg, besides internal injuries, and died an hour later at Newton Hospital.

Walsh, a war veteran, had been mentally deranged lately. He had left his house yesterday morning accompanied by his three year old son. The child was observed alone near the bridge by a passing woman motorist. She thought the little by had strayed from his home, so she stopped her car, and the child directed her to the Prospect street address. Upon arriving there, the little fellow told his brothers and sisters—"Daddy fell off the bridge."
Police were notified, went at once to the scene and found Walsh lying beneath the bridge.

Walsh's wife gave birth to a child at the Newton Hospital only several days before his death. He is sur-vived by his wife and eight children, the oldest of whom is fourteen years

Auburndale Boy Killed By Auto

The third fatal accident caused by automobiles in Newton within a period of 5 days occurred on Saturday evening at 5 o'clock when a car driven by John De Rosier, 41, of 87 Freeman st., Auburndale, hit Sarkis Avedisian, 15, of 286 Melrose st., Auburndale, and John Rooney, 13, of 305 Auburn st., Auburndale, as the boys were crossing Lexington st. at the intersection with Freeman st., Auburndale. The Avedisian boy received a fractured skull, fracture of both legs and one arm. In an effort to save his life, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Avedisian gave blood for transfusions Saturday night, but their son died at 8 a. m. Sunday. The Rooney boy received fractures of both legs.

De Rosier placed the two boys in his car and took them to Newton Hospital, where he was placed under arrest by Newton policemen. He was charged with operating a car while under the influence of liquor and operating so as to endanger. When he was arraigned in the Newton court on Monday an additional charge of manslaughter was made against him. The trial was continued until January 9, and De Rosier was released on $5000 bail.

Grippe Raging In The Newtons

The prevalent epidemic of grippe has had many victims in the Newtons the past two weeks. Newton physicians report many patients who have been confined to their homes for several days with the contagious cold, and the Newton police department reports that seventeen of its members were off duty at one time the past week. While the current edition of "grippe" is not of a dangerous type, many of those who have it, perspired profusely, and became quite weakened. Bronchitis and laryngitis also accompanied the sickness in many cases.

THE STATE GOVERNMENT TAKES OFFICE

The government of Massachusetts for the immediate two years has been inaugurated. Leverett Saltonstall as Governor and other elected state officials took the oaths of their respective offices yesterday noon. The 152nd session of the General Court of Massachusetts convened on Wednesday, its members were duly sworn to office, and began to function after an absence from the State House of some sixteen months. Many legislative proposals have been filed before the legislature, of which a comparative few will be enacted into law. The Governor's message, striking a keynote of defense, contains numerous recommendations as well as giving to the public in general a picture of the condition of Massachusetts. Of necessity the Governor's message contains but few figures as such detailed requirements for the financial operation of the state will be dealt with more adequately in the budget message which will be forthcoming in another few weeks.

However, during the past two years, it is noteworthy that the state begins the current biennial with a surplus of free cash of more than three and a quarter millions of dollars instead of a deficit which existed two years ago. There is also over two and a half million dollars in the Highway Fund. Yet in these past two years the state debt has been reduced by almost one half and in addition nearly ten millions of dollars each year has been turned back to the cities and towns to assist in local road work. The year 1940 has also shown a reduction in tax rates in two hundred and fifteen cities and towns, the biggest reduction in thirty years.

While it is gratifying to witness the great improvement in the financial picture of the state a continued adherence to sound policies and continued sincere application of honest effort to government for all must be continued. The Governor aptly points out "today the country faces the greatest emergency in its history. Massachusetts, as in the past, will play her part". And that part will come in the co-operative effort of all real Americans-to maintain a defense program that will preserve our national unity and integrity.

OUR COMMUNITY RESPONSIBILITY

Two weeks from tomorrow, after weeks and months of an almost endless amount of detailed work leading to the organization and development of plans for efficient operation, the 1941 Greater Boston Community Fund campaign will actually get under way. An appeal for a New Year's resolution of united action was made this week to every citizen of Newton by the general chairman of the fund through the local chairman, William V. M. Fawcett. This year, for the first time, the Newton Community Chest has joined the Greater Boston fund in a cooperative effort in behalf of the many hospitals, social service agencies, charitable institutions and character-building organizations which are dependent upon the generosity of all civic minded citizens for their very existence. The resolution is entitled "our four-point community responsibility for 1941."

1. TO DEFEND Greater Boston against disease, poverty, crime, despair and defeatism—FOR these are en-emies within that weaken our defenses, undermine morale and imperil our American way of life.

2. TO BUILD America's first line of defense by helping to build healthy, vigorous, self-reliant and libertyloving citizens—FOR they are the strength of our community and of our nation.

TO LABOR of our own free will for the good of all people, shoulder to shoulder with our fellow-citizens of all parties, races, creeds—FOR this is the highest expression and the strongest safeguard of democracy.

4. TO GIVE, therefore, the utmost of our time and means to our Community Fund—FOR it is the greatest united volunteer force in our community for safeguarding our people and preserving our democratic institu-

The goal of $4,883,000 to be raised throughout forty-six cities and towns by February 5 is the minimum amount needed to support the Fund's 200 hospitals, health and social service agencies for the coming year. Plan now to do your share.

Powers' Paragraphs

In his talk over the radio on Sunday night, President Roosevelt said: "I believe the axis powers are not going to win this war. I base that belief on the latest and best information." The President was more optimistic than a few weeks previously when he told the folks at Warm Springs, Georgia, that he would return there next spring if civilization survives.

While the President was speaking over the radio swarms of German warplanes were showering many thousands of incendiary bombs on London and destroying much of the heart of that ancient capital of England. Which emphasized Mr. Roosevelt's statement: "But all our present efforts are not enough. The United States must have more ships, more guns, more planes,—more every-States must have more ships, more guns, more planes,—more everything." He said that the United States must be the arsenal of democracy; it must supply Great Britain, and manufacture war equipment for its own defence. And the day following the President's speech it was officially announced that this country at the present time is producing 700 warplanes a month. Germany is producing four or five times that number. Whatever is the latest news that was received by the President, which leads him to believe that the axis powers will not win this war, it certainly does not hinge on the present production of warplanes by Britain and the U. S. A., as compared with the production by Germany of these most potent weapons of the war. So if the axis powers are not with the production by Germany of these most potent weapons of the war. So if the axis powers are not to win the war, the U. S. A. will have to show much better results in airplane production the coming six months than it has during the past six months. What the production of airplanes will be in 1942 does not, in our opinion count a great deal. Because we believe that the war will be decided during 1941. It is generally believed, both by the British and others, that Germany will soon launch a terrific attack on Great Britain. Should such an attack overwhelm that island, it could mean the winning of this war by Germany.

winning of this war by Germany.

There is a professor in a nearby university who has obtained considerable publicity recently by his warmongering. He advocates the U. S. A. plunging at once into the war between Britain and Germany. He seems to believe that war is glorious, according to what we have heard regarding his philosophy. One of the "glorious" things of war is—that the flower of the young manhood of participating countries is selected to be slaughtered in the wholesale murder. Only the physically and mentally fit are accepted to serve as cannon-fodder.

For instance—U. S. Army physicians are very exacting in passing for military service young men who registered in the recent draft. We recently heard of a young giant, six feet and three inches tall, who weighs about 250 and has tremendous strength, who was rejected because feet and three inches tall, who weighs about 250 and has tremendous strength, who was rejected because his teeth were somewhat defective. Which reminds us of a very husky young man who was rejected in the last World War when he wanted to enlist, because a couple of his molars were decayed. That disappointed youth said: "What in Hell do they expect us to fight with? Our teeth!"

The young men who enlist for military service, or who are drafted, will not fight with their teeth. But, most of the warmongers are mouth fighters.

We read of devastating raids almost nightly over London and other English cities; of 500 and 1000 pound bombs dropped in large quantities from German warplanes to wreak destruction. We see photographs sent to this country from England showing the terrible effects of the high explosive and incendiary bombs dropped by Nazi aviators. And we read reports sent back from England by one after another of those journalists and reporters from the U. S. A. who have gone to that country in recent months, and who assert that they saw very little damage in that country as a result of age in that country as a result of the incessant bombings by Nazi war-planes. How do these U. S. A. jour-nalists expect us to believe their statements in the face of reports and photographs passed by British cen-

Newspapers in Massachusetts re-Newspapers in Massachusetts re-ceived last week from a press asso-ciation an article relative to the pro-posed State lottery which is spon-sored by the Massachusetts Society for Old Age Pensions, and the Home Owners League. The purpose of the State lottery is to increase old age assistance, and reduce taxes on real estate.

The news article we refer to stated that the Legislature probably will not vote in favor of the bill for the State lottery, despite the fact that at the election in November a referendum on this lottery showed that the people of Massachusetts are overwhelmingly in favor of it. The article states that racing and gambling groups oppose the proposed State lottery bill because such a lottery would cut into their "business."

We agree with the news article in the prediction that many of the Legislators whose districts voted in favor of the lottery, will oppose the bill. There is more "sugar" available from the racing and gambling interests than there would be from a State operated lottery.

The newspaper article refers to the opposition of Cardinal O'Connell and Governor Saltonstall against a State lottery. It quotes the Governor as saying—"We have not reached that stage in our civilization yet. A tax-raising lottery is undemocratic any-how. It hits those who can least af-ford it. I would be surprised at my-self if I ever recommended it."

The writer has favored a State lot-tery and condemned the State con-trolled pari-mutuel gambling at horse and dog racing tracks. The Gover-nor apparently condones the latter trolled pari-mutuel gambling at horse and dog racing tracks. The Governor apparently condones the latter type of gambling, because we have not heard or read of his opposition to it. We disagree with the Governor in favoring a State lottery and opposing pari-mutuel gambling, and we use the Governor's argument "that it hits those who can least afford it," as much more applicable to pari-mutuel gambling than it is to a State lottery.

A State lottery might be conducted only four times each year. But even though it were operated every month, most persons playing it would only buy one ticket at a cost of $1 or $2.$ And if they never won, their yearly loss would be only a few dollars. In contrast, there are 8 or 9 races daily or nightly at horse and dog tracks, and the minimum bet under the parimutuel system is $2 on each race—and the daily double. Thus, those who indulge in pari-mutuel gambling, can, and do, lose more in one day or night at a race track, than they would in a year by purchasing tickets of a State lottery. And there have been plenty of pari-mutuel addicts who have embezzled, and not paid bills they owed for the necessaries of life because of their losses in pari-mutuel gambling. And we knew of some who committed suicide. We don't expect that certain Senators who opposed Governor Salton-stall's demand for increases in the who opposed Governor Saltonstall's demand for increases in the tax paid to the Commonwealth to the State by the dog-racing tracks will vote for the lottery bill. Neither do we expect support for the lottery bill by a prominent political strategist and mentor of some of our leading statesmen, who lobbied in the interests of the dog-racing tracks.

Alderman Donald McKay, at a re-cent meeting of the Board of Alder-men said—"It is impossible to sep-arate the citizens of Newton into men said—"It is impossible to separate the citizens of Newton into two groups—those who pay water bills, and those who pay taxes—because the two are thoroughly commingled. But for the purpose of debate let us assume they are quite distinct. Neither should be subsidized or penalized for the benefit of the other. Justice then would be attained by the Water Department contributing $100,000 annually to the general surplus account of the city. If instead of doing this, its own surplus is used for capital expenditures, the taxpayer is penalized." In the same speech before the Board of Aldermen, Mr. Mchay remarked that the Water Department is a self-supporting utility owned by the city, and because it is public property, it is taxexempt. If it were privately owned it would pay the city about $100,000 canually in taxes, because its undepreciated cost value as of January it would pay the city about $100,000 canually in taxes, because its undepreciated cost value as of January 1, 1940 was $4,635,602. We do not agree with Mr. Mc-Kay's argument. Public ownership of water systems by cities and towns was established generally not alone to guarantee dependable and pure supply of that greatest essential, water, but also to provide it at the lowest possible cost. Being a pub-supply of that greatest essential, water, but also to provide it at the lowest possible cost. Being a public-owned utility, and therefore tax-exempt, is one reason why city and town owned water systems provide water at less cost to consumers than would be the case if they were privately owned, or owned by some gigantic holding company with head-quarters in some other State.

I was a member of that Board of Aldermen which some years ago raised the water rates in Newton to meet extraordinary conditions. There was a deficit in the Water Department, and much new construction of water mains, plus cleaning of old mains was required at that time. When the rates were increased, it was understood that within a few years they would be lowered. The rates to larger consumers were lowered, but not to a large percentage of residents of Newton. And these are the less wealthy residents.

The City of Newton ranked first in The City of Newton ranked first in November among cities of Massachusetts between 50,000 and 100,000 population as regards highway safety. This good record went the other way when in the last week of December three fatal automobile accidents occurred in Newton. One was not caused by reckless driving of a motor vehicle. This was the unfortunate vehicle. This was the unfortunate death of a little child who had alighted from an automobile and who suded from an automobile and who suddenly ran under an approaching truck. The second fatality involved a Quincy youth who approached a main street intersection at irresponsible speed, hit another automobile and then crashed into a traffic signal set in unyielding cement. He was not a resident of Newton and Newton police cannot be blamed for his recklessness.

The third fatality resulted in the death of one boy and serious injurite the Me and $300,000 of this amount, for main sewers, should be bonded.

Dr. Otis Hunt said that to pay for the sewers as they are built would be a burden, and the cost had better be extended over a term of years. Matters could be eased by putting half the cost on abuttors and half on bonds. He said the cost would not be equalled anyway. A man on a main street with land there assessed for 50 cents a foot, and the houses at $10,000, will be taxed the same as the poor man on a side street, where land is worth only 10 cents a foot, and the house only $3000. We should in some way make people pay in proportion to their means.

Marcus Morton asked if any other city or town has the same system of financing the cost of the sewers as Newton plans, and Alderman Harbach told him the system is copied from that used by Brookline. Kiwanis Club

Announcement was made Tuesday that the installation of officers for the Newton Kiwanis Club would be held on Wednesday evening, January 8th, and the place of the meeting will be announced later.

Word was received by the members of the local club from their fellow member Lieutenant Colonel Thomas F. Dowd, who is now serving at the Naval Training Station, Newport, Rhode Island.

President John A. Janse, who presided at the meeting last Tuesday, announced the sudden death of Mr. Charles Barrows. Mr. Barrows was a director of the local club and also Chairman of the Reception Committee. He was a charter member. Kiwanians attended his funeral on New Year's Day in a body. President Janse appointed Mr. George White, as a member, to draw appropriate resolutions.

Members of the local club extended their congratulations to Wilfred Chagnon, who has just been appointed by the Governor as a member of the State Board of Pharmacy.

Salvation Army Local Relief Fund

The newly formed Salvation Army Local Relief Fund did its first fine work for Newton needy over the Christmas season by seeing to it that many had food for a fine Yuletide dinner and more to help through the days that followed. This is the type of work which will be carried on by the committee head-ed by Douglass B. Francis, chairman of the sponsoring committee through the winter and the year, according to those backing the annual appeal for $5000 now being operated with the assistance of six collectors.

Each year at the close of the cam-for $5000 now being operated with the assistance of six collectors. Each year at the close of the campaign for funds, a portion of the money collected will be retained in Newton. It is to be used in many avenues of immediate relief.

In talking of the relief fund, William A. Nicol, public relations secretary and head of all organizations seeking funds for the Salvation Army, said:

"These local relief funds have done a fine work in the town of Massachusetts. It gives town unfortunates a better chance to get quick aid and Iso a better opportunity to find quick haven of help in the many institutions and departments of the Army in Boston. I mean by this—that those who are active in the local relief work will always want to get more help—if needed—and will do this at once. All of our resources in Boston are available to any Newton man, woman or child."

Mr. Francis again asks that hundreds of new donors come to the aid of the plan to reach the $5,000 mark and that former friends hand or mail their donation to the treasurer, William M. Cahill, of the Newton Trust Company.

Newton Car Hits Waltham Policeman

Thomas Farrington, 22, of 46 Webster st., West Newton, was arrested in Waltham on Thursday night, December 26 after the car he was driving had hit Patrolman Thomas Rogers of the Waltham police. The policeman, who was directing traffic on Moody st., Waltham, received a fracture of his collar bone and head injuries, and was taken to Waltham Hospital. Farrington was arraigned in the Waltham court last Friday on charges of drunkenness and driving while under the influence of liquor. His case was continued until January 2.

Essentials of Full Living

Modern People Neglect

We've added a lot of shining improvements to our way of living since the days when the hitching post was an essential part of every front yard, but somewhere along the speedway we've lost some things that were most important.

Life was simpler in the old days and harder too. There was more quiet and more courtesy—and Sunday was the Sabbath, a day reserved for church rather than Flash Gordon.

I think children had more respect for the stern father who refused to tolerate laziness or impertinence than they have for today's bewild-ered parent who has been thoroughly cowed by the psychiatrist and pro-gressive educator.

Both children and adults were more self-sufficient in the past. The radio and movies have left us with little incentive to exercise either our little incentive to exercise either our hands or our brains. It seems a waste of time to practice scales when a whirl of the dial can bring the wizardry of Rachmaninoff or Heifetz into the room, and our books grow dusty while we sit hypnotized at the latest Hollywood master-piece. This is the machine age, de-signed to give women more leisure time, but how few of us use that time to improve ourselves, to help our families, our communities, our fellowmen! fellowmen!

Perhaps we've been so busy de veloping the attributes of a comfortable and a long life that we've for gotten the essentials that make up a

Spiders Found in Brazil That Often Eat Snakes

Snakes commonly eat spiders and other insects. But in Brazil there are also spiders which eat snakes, it was announced recently by Dr. Vi-tal Brasil of Nichtheroy, Brazil.

He says the snake-eating spider is called the "grammostola," that it is very fond of several snakes but especially likes one called the "jararaca" or "lachesis atrox."

toxic venom into a snake, the latter suffers local cramps and then tetanus, with convulsions, progressive paralysis and death by stoppage of breathing. Then the spider spends days dining on his victim.

The "jararaca" snake also is ven omous, but his poison will not kill the grammostola spider.

Dr. Brasil is the founder of the Butantan institute in Sao Paulo, Brazil, which visitors generally remember as the "snake farm," and which has done much in supplying counteragents for snake bites.

He found there are two general types of spider bite—the neuro-toxic which causes paralysis and death, and the necrosant, which usually

Lincoln's Famous Letter

Lincoln's Famous Letter
Abraham Lincoln's famous letter to Mrs. Bixby was, "Dear Madam: I have been shown in the files of the War Department a statement of the adjutant general of Massachusetts that you are the mother of five sons who have died gloriously on the field of battle. I feel how weak and fruitless must be any word of mine which should attempt to beguile you from the grief of a loss so overwhelming. But I cannot refrain from tendering you the consolation that may be found in the thanks of the republic they died to save. I pray that our heavenly father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement, and leave you only the cherished memory of the loved and lost, and the solemn pride that must be yours to have laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom. Yours very sincerely and respectfully, A. Lincoln."

Being a fervent collector of autographs, Andrew Carnegie once asked a friend who was visiting Germany to obtain the autograph of the German biologist-philosopher Ernst Haeckel, who had recently published his startling book, "The Riddle of the Universe."

Some weeks later Carnegie received the autograph of the wily Haeckel. The philosopher had written: "Professor Haeckel of the Uniten: "Professor Haeckel of the University of Jena acknowledges the receipt of a new high-power microscope for the biological institute of the university and deeply thanks Mr. Andrew Carnegie for the gift."

Mr. Carnegie's canny Scotch blood appreciated the hint: He promptly forwarded the microscope to the

McKay Contradicts Hoffman on Cost of Water Bond Issue

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on December 23, Alderman Hoffman, in opposing the issuance of bonds to defray the cost of water main construction, stated that it would cost the city $13,000 for the interest on the $50,000 bond issue over a term of 15 years. The following statement from Alderman Mc-Kay of the Finance Committee, contradicts Alderman Hoffman's contention:

tradicts Alderman Hoffman's contention:

"In the discussion of the fifteen year $50,000 Water Department bond issue on December 23rd it was stated by the one opponent that the total interest charges would be about $13,000. Apparently the alderman overlooked two important facts. First, it will be a serial issue, $4,000 maturing in each of the first ten years, and $2,000 maturing in each of the last five years. Second, interest rates are now so low that the first ten maturities can probably carry \%\(\pi\) coupons, and the balance 1\(\pi\) or 1\(\frac{1}{4}\)\(\pi\) coupons. If the entire issue is sold with 1\(\pi\) coupons, the total interest charges for fifteen years will be slightly over \$3,600. So many persons have detected the discrepancy that it seems proper to issue this explanation. Several of us were remiss in not challenging it during the debate."

Newton has been selected again as one of the cities to have another series of evening extension classes for discussion and study of the fundamental cause of the unemployment of millions of worthy Americans. Related to this will be an investigation of how to stop the steady increase in taxes in Newton and other cities. Not only will domestic economic problems be considered but also the basic reasons for the terrible wars now being waged throughout half the world.

No previous study is necessary to greatly benefit from and enjoy this discussion and study group. (Each person attending class can adapt himself or herself, to the subject matter presented by the qualified class

Fined $75 For Reckless Driving

The occurrence of fatal automobile accidents in Newton recently did not help George P. Carey of 1183 Washington st., West Newton, when he appeared in the Newton court last Saturday on charge of driving so as to endanger the safety of the public. He was found guilty by Judge Mayberry and fined $75. A car driven by Carey collided with three other automobiles on Waltham st., West Newton, and four occupants of the cars were reported as having received injuries. Carey's defense was—that glaring headlights on the first car his automobile collided with had blinded him.

Rotary Club

"The Business Outlook for 1941" was the subject of the talk given by Arthur Babson of the Babson Statistical Organization at the weekly meeting of the Newton Rotary Club on Monday, December 30. Mr. Babson feels optimistic in regard to improving conditions in 1941, although there a few factors which are inharmonious with this view.

Business atpresent is booming, particularly in the retail lines, but business men are still uncertain of the future. The physical volume of business in higher now than in 1928 or in 1937 and is close to the peak of 1929, being 30 per cent above normal.

In a survey of business conditions, being 30 per cent above normal.

In a survey of business conditions, Mr. Babson listed the following assets: Retail trade is booming, residential building construction figures are up, bank deposits are greater, and business failures are lower. On the debit side of the ledger are the following: Foreign trade has been greatly curtailed, higher costs are expected in industry due to a labor situation that is only mediocre, and rising taxes. ising taxes rising taxes.

In regard to the rearmament program. Mr. Babson feels that it will add 10 per cent to the national production in 1941. Even if England should fall, the armament industry would still be going at top speed. All in all, the favorable factors outweigh the unfavorable, and the Babson Organization predicts that business volume in 1941 will be 10 per cent greater than in 1940, with increased employment, good retail trade, and excellent general business.

In regard to the stock market, Mr. Babson said that current stock prices were out of line with production figures. He felt particularly optimistic in regard to rearmament industries, namely, chemicals, steel, rails, and electricals. The only bearish factor is the tax situation, but the speaker feels that the market will improve in sympathy with the present upswing in production.

In speaking of the long-term impli-aviation and plastics.

In speaking of the public debt and inflation, Mr. Babson stated that the country could stand a higher public debt, but what alarms the statisticians is the current trend of going continually into debt even in good business years. This would eventually result in the devaluation of our money with a loss, not only to the rich, but also to every workingman due to recent social security legislation.

This country can have a real box

lation.

This country can have a real honest stable economy only through sacrifice and only if the people of the United States are willing to practice the old New England virtues of honesty, courage, thrift, and initiative. It is possible to amortize the public debt and, to quote "get out of the hole in which we find ourselves."

Present at the invitation of the Rotarians were fourteen members of the Newton Zonta Club, including the president of the organization Miss Ethel P. Gammons.

In speaking of the long-term implications, Mr. Babson stated that after the rearmament boom is over there would be a decentralization of industry. Drunken Driving Causes $150 Fine

Robert T. Boynton, 19, of 37 Holden rd., Waban, was arraigned in the Newton court last Friday on charges of drunkenness, and driving a car while under the influence of liquor. He was arrested the previous evening by Patrolman McGrath after the car he was driving had nearly hit a bicyclist on Waltham st. Boynton's case was continued until December 31, and on that day he was fined $100 by Judge Mayberry for driving while under the influence of liquor, and $50 for driving after his license had been revoked.

More than $1,500,000 has been grossed in 16 years by the Emily Post book of etiquette.

nance and supervision mandatory. We have added playgrounds and at the same time reduced labor and supervision to the point where the usual high standard of service cannot be maintained."

In a letter to Mayor Goddard, which accompanied the report, Mrs. Therese Marshall, chairman of the Recreation Commission said:

Recreation Commission said:

"It is to be hoped that in the near future the sanitary facilities on the play fields may be greatly improved. Many, now, are in an unsatisfactory condition," she stated.

"The new Lincoln-Eliot School is a happy illustration of co-operation between the Recreation and School Departments as it is built next to the Boyd Playground and has a recreation wing. When new school buildings are to be erected, it is desirable to have this example followed. Our Department deeply appreciates the continual co-operation of the School Board in helping us to carry on our programs, and is grateful to the Trustees of the Library for its delivery of books to several playgrounds."

Alderman Barwise moved that the Board reconsider a vote of the previous meeting which authorized the appropriation of $4150 for the improvement of Keefe ave. Upper Falls, and $1200 for improving Pennsylvania ave., Upper Falls. Barwise said he had received a letter from persons owning property on these streets, and who claim that they will lose their properties because of their inability to pay the betterment assessments. Alderman Walker stated that the Board had given careful consideration to this matter, that the improvements on the two streets are improvements on the two streets are badly needed, and he hoped Barwise's motion would not prevail. The motion was lost by a vote of 14 to 6.

Police Start On Annual Listing

Catch Woman Who Stole Money From Newton Ctr. House

Mrs. Antonette Murray, 29, of 378a Boylston st., Newton Center, was Boylston st., Newton Center, was captured on Tuesday night at the home of Daniel Antonellis, 374 Boylston st. after she entered the house through a window, with a flashlight in her hand. A few times recently sums of money had been stolen from the Antonellis house, so, on Tuesday night relatives of the family hid in the house after Mr. and Mrs. Antonellis had left their residence. Michael Carbone of Cambridge hid in the living-room, and his wife and her the living-room, and his wife and her sister, Miss Rose Amendola hid in a bedroom.

sister, Miss Rose Amendola ind in a bedroom.

Carbone seized Mrs. Murray after she entered through the window, and held her captive until Newton police arrived and placed her under arrest. She was arraigned in the Newton court on Thursday and Sergeant King, the prosecutor, requested Judge Mayberry to change the charge from burglary to the less serious one of larceny, so the local court could have jurisdiction. King said that the woman's husband had promised to make restitution to the extent of $70, and the defendant is the mother of two small children. The judge indicated that he would impose a suspended sentence of one year in Billerica Prison, and continued the case until Friday.

Youth Stole To Buy Christmas Gifts

Melvin Healey, 20, of 22 Langley rd., Newton Center, was found guilty of the theft of $25 in the Newton court yesterday and sentenced to 6 months in Billevice prison. The senmonths in Billerica prison. The sentence was suspended and he was placed on probation. Healey is a sentimental youth and stole the $25 from a friend in order to buy Christman presents including some hand. mas presents, including some hand-kerchiefs for the daughter of the woman from whom he stole the money.

Healey was arrested on Tuesday by Lieut. Crowley and Sergt. Ban-non after Mrs. Maybelle Porter of 90 Erie ave., Newton Highlands, had complained that $25 in cash had been stolen from her pocketbook. Inquiries by the police brought information that the theft of the money had tion that the theft of the money had been learned after a visit made by Healey to Mrs. Porter's daughter Healey admitted taking the cash There was $50 in cash in the pocket-book, but Healey took only $25.

Winning both of its games on Saturday and New Year's day' the Newton High School hockey team clung to a second place tie with Cambridge Latin in the Greater Boston Interscholastic league standing while Melrose continued its pace-setting surge a full-game in the van of the pack. Newton's victories were over Stoneham High on Saturday by a 2 to 1 count and over Belmont on the holiday by a 4 to 2 score. Unless the Cantabs continue their proclivity for tie games (having played two in four contests) the second place deadlock will be broken tomorrow when Newton and Cambridge Latin hook up in the opener of the four-game program for the afternoon.

Displaying potential capabilities but handicapped by lack of skating facilities and experience the orange and black sextet was fortunate in meeting two of the present secondivision outfits in its last two encounters. Although neither Stoneham nor Belmont are set-ups for any of the other teams in the circuit the locals found the going considerably difficult. Against Stoneham the Newton boys hung up two points with Phill Fessenden on the scoring end of both sallies but Stoneham caged the puck two minutes before the final bell to throw a scare into Newton.

On the holiday Belmont stood up to Newton over the two final periods after Stan Collinson and Fessenden had put Newton over the two final periods after Stan Collinson and Fessenden had put Newton over the two final periods after Stan Collinson and Fessenden had put Newton over the two final periods after Stan Collinson and Fessenden had put Newton over the two final periods after Stan Collinson and Fessenden had put Newton over the two final periods after Stan Collinson and Fessenden had put Newton over the two final periods after Stan Collinson and Fessenden had put Newton over the two final periods after Stan Collinson and Fessenden had put Newton over the two final periods after Stan Collinson and Fessenden had put Newton over the two final periods after Stan Collinson and Fessenden had put Newton over the two final period

Coach Johnson was forced to bring Joe Beatty back to a defence position against Belmont due to the absence of Charley French. Beatty was moved up to wing last Saturday in an effort to bolster the first team line. Dick Gleason, recovering from a severe cold, was on hand and teamed with Guy Monroe on defence part of the time while Stan Collinson took a wing position with Corcoran and Fessenden when Beatty moved back to defence.

Mallor and Harding put Belmont

Belmont defence and Fessenden again beat Voss with a clean shot.

Mallor and Harding put Belmont back into the game a few seconds before the end of the period teaming up to beat McKenna whose vision was shielded by those between him and the play as it developed. In the second period Jefferson teamed up with Mallor for the Belmont second goal which was strictly earned when the Newton lads were finding the going tough as Belmont pressed. Beatty and Monroe each spent a minute and half in the penalty box for dealing out board checks. In the third period with Belmont still pressing Beatty smothered the puck in front of the net and spent another minute and a half in the penalty box but with its man advantage the Belmonts could not capitalize. At 8 minutes of the period Collinson clinched the verdict from a scrimmage in front of the net slamming the disc in from about three feet in front of the cage.

Agree on Lot Sizes At Newton Hlds.

The petition of the County Building Supply Company (Louis Rudnick) for variances on house lots on Elinor and Woodcliff rds., Newton Highlands, was acted upon by the Board of Aldermen on Wednesday. The lots had been laid out in 25 foot widths in a land promotion sale years ago. Rudnick presented a plan dividing the areas into 20 lots. On recommendation of the Planning ecommendation of the Planning Board, the Aldermen compromised by restricting the number of lots to 17, ten of which will have the frontage and area specified by the new zoning ordinance, and seven will be

Coach Enoch Talks At Nat. Convention Of Track Coaches

Coach Donald Enoch of the Newton High School track team was one of the principal speakers at the annual convention of the Association of College Track Coaches of America in New York over the past weekend. The Newton coach, the only schoolboy mentor on the two-day program, closed the morning session on Monday, speaking on the subject "Co-ordination Between Track Coaches and Coaching in the High School and College Programs." Press reports indicate that following his talk Coach Enoch was the object of many questions and compliments and that his audience was most interested in his views. Among the other speakers were Edward S. Parsons, of Northeastern University, president of the Association, of College Track Coaches of America; Major John L. Griffith, secretary of the National Collegiate A. A.; Asa A. Bushnell, executive officer Eastern I. A. A. and I. C. A. A. A. A.; Harry Hillman of Dartmouth, secretary of the Association of College Track Coaches; Avery Brown, president American Olympic Association; Ralph Young, Director of Athletics at Michigan State College; and E. State College; and E. C. Hayes, Track Coach, Indiana University.

Coach Enoch developed his topic on three themes. First, an appeal for more persons to interest themselves in track coaching. In many places coaches with little experience and not too great an interest in track are assigned to that sport in their schools and their lack of enthusiasm and interest for that branch of athletics is a handicap to its development. Second, an appeal to all coaches to not overwork track athletes. It is Mr. Enoch's contention that schoolboy track athletes need as little as half of that of a college competitor. College track methods imposed on high school youngsters are apt to impair their health and many coaches who have engaged in college competition impose their own training schedule upon younger boys without much thought. Third, an appeal to make track more popular with spectators by running off meets with increased efficiency. Members of the audience were amazed to learn that Coach Enoch and other officials in charge of Newton's outdoor quadrangular meets in the spring have repeatedly completed a nine-event program in a little more than an hour. He also urged that distances in the field events, and particularly the jumps, be measured more accurately in order that a boy who is capable of doing a certain height or distance may not be overestimated in his performances by practice figures which show better than he can actually perform.

Bishop Cushing Sends Crib To

Tuskegee Chapel

Rev. Leon Farragher, a former Newton boy, was the celebrant of the first midnight mass ever said in Eastern Alabama at the new mission chapel of St. Joseph at Tuskegee on December 25th. The mass was attended by students at Tuskegee Institute, patients from the nearby St. S. Veterans' Hospital, as well as by colored people from that section as and from points some distance away.

Before Christmas Father Farragher, pastor of the church there, was dismayed at the prospect of being without a Christmas Crib for his chapel, but he was pleasantly surprised by receiving a complete crib of Bethlehem from Bishop Richard Cushing, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre, and a good of friend of the colored missions in the South.

Father Farragher writes that it was heartwarming to see the people who came to the midnight mass gather about the crib to gaze in awa ta the beauty of the ensemble. For most of them, it was the first time they had seen such a display and they were enthusiastic. At the Sunday, January 5, 1941, meeting of the Newton Community Forum, Mr. Bruce Blivin, Editor of the New Republic, spoke on "The Job Before Congress."

The music preceding the address was furnished by the Newton High School band under the direction of Mr. J. Collins Lingo. The numbers were: God Bless America, El Capitan March, and The Star Spangled Banner.

Dr. Kirtley F. Mather, chairman of the Forum, then introduced the speaker, Mr. Blivin, who prefaced his remarks by stating that this Congress is the most important in the history of the United States.

Evening Sessions on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at Newton Centre—Many Valuable Prizes to Be Awarded

There is a familiar saying that the stomach and another that the way to keep peace in a family is to feed friend husband well. So every woman in Newton should be interested in cooking and should be on hand next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, January 14, 15 and 16, 18 and 16. The days are Tuesday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, January 14, 15 and 16, at the Newton Centre Woman's Clubhouse in Newton Centre sq. for the three free sessions of the Newton Graphic Fall Cooking School.

The sessions of the school, which is conducted with the co-operation of the Boston Consolidated Gas Company and many local merchants, will begin each evening at 8 o'clock and end at 10 p. m. Doors will open at To'clock. Come early strations by Miss Blasdale and her assistants, United Farmers' milk and cream will be used. They favor the uniform high quality and delicious flavor of United Farmers' "12-hour fresh" milk and cream.

The grand prize will be the presentation of a Magic Chef Gas Range. The famous Magic Chef is the best selling gas range in America, with a life-time guarante on all burners, Red Wheel oven regulator, porcelain enamel for easy cleaning, full insulation to save fuel and keep the kitchen cooler, and a super-duty top burner for extra fast cooking. There are large storage compartments on each side and a handy drop-door broiler as well as the popular divided cooking top. If the grand prize winner prefers a smart kitchen heating magic chef may be selected in place of the range.

Other prizes include ten quarts of Hendrie's ice cream daily and 24 spe-cial bags of familiar brand food and household supplies. In addition there will be special merchants prizes to-talling more than a hundred dollars in value to be awarded the last ses-

The program will be different on each session of the school and each woman who attends will be given a printed program which will list the recipes to be prepared and explained that session. The program will serve as a permanent record of the facts learned at the school and may well be used to supplement the house-wives file of recipes used in preparing meals in their homes. Miss Blasdale will explain and demonstrate many novel and time-saving methods of cooking. Thus the school offers a golden opportunity for the women of the Newtons to obtain new ideas, tested recipes for main dishes and desserts that are wholesome, delicious and economical. delicious and economical.

Clifford Walker Is Acting Mayor

Clifford H. Walker, of Waban, has been acting Mayor of Newton for the past few days. Mayor Goddard is on a business trip to New York, and President Floyd of the Board of Aldermen is on a business trip to Wisconsin. Mr. Walker, as Vice-President of the Board, was called upon to assume the duties of Mayor for several days. This entitles him to the prefix "Honorable."

Police Department Has Map For Cruising Cars

A large map of Newton measuring 8 by 8 feet has been placed in the radio room at Newton police head-quarters. On it are bulbs representing the various cruising cars in operation. The map is divided into districts and the radio operator on duty can show the location of each car by means of the lighted bulbs. Technician Hartford did the electrical work on the map.

Underwriters Make Report on Two-Platoon

On Monday Mayor Goddard made public the report recently received from the National Board of Fire Underwriters as a result made of the Newton Fire Department. This survey was made on request of members of the Newton Board of Aldermen in connection with the establishment of the two-platoon system in the department. The two-platoon system was authorized by a referendum vote of citizens of Newton at the election in November. The system has to be established within 90 days following the election.

Although the recommendation in the report of the Fire Underwriters calls for the appointment of 31 additional members to the fire department, it does not follow that this is the number which will be recommended by Mayor Goddard when he submits his recommendation to the Board of Aldermen at their next meeting on January 20 for an appropriation to provide for salaries for the additional firemen.

The report submitted to the Mayor by George W. Booth of the Fire Underwriters contains the following:

"In accordance with your request for advice concerning the number."

arm now and do need to, it is our last mistake!"

The issues formerly before Congress are not pressing now. The question of unemployment is almost solved by the defense program; the debt will probably be met by the hugely increased national income in the next three years; and the scare of inflation is not a reality. The important job before Congress is the successful acceleration of our national defense preparations.

During the question period some interesting points were brought up. Mr. Blivin sharply condemned the outrageous profiteering on government contracts—as high as 50 percent a year. He pointed out that the American Aluminum Company is responsible for the shortage of aluminum for airplane production, blamed Henry Ford's disobeying of the National Labor Relations Act and refusal to allow collective bargaining for labor's opposition to contracts for Ford's company, said, on the other hand, that labor strikes should not be employed during a national emergency, and that plans for arbitration

The report submitted to the Mayor by George W. Booth of the Fire Underwriters contains the following:

"In accordance with your request for addictional men necessary to maintain the present Fire Department effectiveness on the two-platoon basis accepted at the recent election, Mr. George L. Swan of this office, in George L. Swan of this office, in a company with Mr. Charnock of the New England Fire Insurance Rating Association, visited Newton on Nov. 18 and 19.

"With the assistance of Chief Randlett, the number of men available for response with apparatus was carefully checked and the character and size of the response districts of the various companies were surveyed. This study confirmed the statement made in the 1932 report of the National Board of Fire Underwriters that, even with the assistance available from surrounding cities under mutual aid provisions, the Fire Department is still considerably undermanned.

"Obviously, a change to two-platoon operation, based on the present effective strength, would continue to leave the department undermanned.

"We have, however, in the table below shown the number of men now assigned to the various companies, to gether with the effective strength, of the Fire Department at night, and also the number of men and officers who should be added to the department so as to continue the present effective strength.

Aldermen Against Meeting on New Year's Day

The first step in abolishing the holding of a meeting annually on New Year's Day by the Newton Board of Aldermen has been taken by Alderman Charles Hughes. He has requested that the Claims and Rules Committee of the Aldermen take action on this matter. Many years ago the practice was started of holding the inaugural of the Newton City Government on the afternoon of New Year's Day. At that time the day was not a legal holiday in Massachusetts. Since January I was made a holiday in this State, the attendance at the inaugural exercises has been very slim, except on a few occasions. These were—the inaugural following the first election of Mayor Sinclair Weeks; the inaugural on January I, 1936 when Mayor Childs resumed office; and the inaugural of Mayor Goddard last year. There are too many other attractions on New Year's Day, and Newton citizens have not been attending inaugurals at City Hall on that day. With the change from annual to biennial elections in Newton three. He stressed the fact that tremend-ous pressure will be brought to bear both by sincere Americans and by foreign propaganda groups—Ger-man, Italian, Communist agents are not to be underrated. man, Italian, Communist agents are not to be underrated.

He showed that while England and Germany devote 4 hours out of every 8 hours to war work, we spend only 30 minutes out of 8 hours for war production, and only 15 minutes of this is for England. With Germany gouging out of conquered Europe alone twice as much as we sent to England, the United States is of little help to Great Britain.

Mr. Blivin said that we must make our "war effort" far, far larger, because, if England falls, the results to us will be, first, the German encirclement of South America, then an attack on our poorly fortified Panama Canal, and finally attack on both the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans—and our two-ocean navy will not be ready until 1947. The alternatives are these: "If we arm now and don't arm now and do need to, it is our last mistake!"

zens have not been attending inaugurals at City Hall on that day.

With the change from annual to biennial elections in Newton three years ago, all members of the Newton City Government are elected for two year terms, and on the off year since, the Mayor does not deliver an inaugural address at the meeting of the Aldermen on New Year's Day.
It was proposed that no meeting of the Aldermen be held on January

Bartlett ruled that the City Charter required one to be held. The Aldermen would also like to enjoy that holiday, hence Alderman Hughes' move to have legal steps initiated to eliminate the holding of a meeting by the Board on January 1 of years when there is no inaugural of the City Government.

Mr. Chevarley is a young man who has proved quite competent in his work with the Street Department. He has taken a course in accountancy and is capable in that profession. Last year he was admitted to the Massachusetts bar after studying law. Two years ago he headed the list of eligibles after taking an examination for foreman in the Street Department. It was planned to transfer him to the Accounting Department and make him assistant to City Comptroller Daniel White. But, the Civil Service Commissioner says—"No."

Activities preliminary to the opening of the Newton 1941 Community Chest Campaign reached a climax this week with open house held in all 14 Chest agencies and a general wind-up of the work of the educational division.

The Campaign will open Friday, January 17, following a general meeting Thursday night in the gymnasium of the Newton High School. Henry Guild, general chairman of, the 1939 Greater Boston Community Fund Campaign, will be the major speaker at the meeting. Brief talks will be given by leaders in the Newton Campaign organizations.

Climax of all pre-campaign work will be Community Sunday, to be observed in all churches in Newton and throughout Greater Boston this Sunday. From Reading in the north to Hingham in the south and west to Wellesley, covering an area of 550 square miles, churches of all denominations will join in common recognition of the Greater Boston community, its needs and its responsibilities.

THE ELM AND THE CHICKADEE

Some months ago the Massachusetts Audubon Society under took to determine the wishes of Massachusetts citizens in the designation of a state tree and a state bird. Massachusetts already has had a state flower for some years—the trailing arbutus. For four months ballots were distributed by mail, placed in schools and published in newspapers and magazines and thousands of persons expressed their choice. Thirty states already have state trees and almost all of them state birds.

The eim tree won by a margin of more than seven thousand votes. It is particularly a fitting tree for state designation, its stately and graceful form indicative of the stately manner in which Massachusetts has come down through the years of history with decorum and leadership. It is also symbolic of the strength and hardiness which has also been traditional of Massachusetts since the Pilgrim Fathers.

The chickadee, as the state bird, is an excellent selection, also. It is one of our most admirable birds native to Massachusetts. Gallant and gay, valorous, yet bubbling and bursting with happiness and high spirits. The chickadee, like most Massachusetts citizens, stays throughout the winter, meeting the cold blizzards and storms with a confidence in those who are thoughtful enough to feed and welcome him. The chickadee is a bird utterly without bad habits and one of the most helpful in controlling every harmful insect pest we have by feeding upon them. In the election of a state bird the chickadee was far ahead of the second place songsparrow with the wood duck in third place having but a quarter of the votes of the chickadee

Formal adoption of the official state tree and state bird will probably be made by the present session of the legislature and while the matter may be unappreciated by some there are many who will derive a sincere measure of appreciation from it.

PREFERENTIAL VOTING

A bill has been presented to the legislature seeking the abolition of the preferential system of voting in Newton. This method of electing city officers was inaugurated nearly twenty-five years ago in order to eliminate party designations, party primaries, involving two city elections. At that time little interest was taken by Newton voters in the primary elections with the consequent development that minority candidates were being nominated. With a subsequent change from annual mayoralty terms to term of two years there was a lack of interest in the so-called "off-year" election, leading to a desirable change to biennial elections. There is little question that it would be desirable to consider the change from the preferential method of voting to one that will mean improvement. Certainly, however, a return to the party system or party primary election would be undesirable. The one alternative, at present, would be to consider the adoption of the "proportional" method of elections which has been adopted in some large cities. In this event, however, it would take considerable effort on the part of interested citizens and civic organizations to educate Newton voters. We urge that careful blem before the abolition of the present system of voting is advocated.

OUR ANNUAL COOKING SCHOOL

We are pleased to announce our third annual cooking school to be held in the Newton Centre Woman's Clubhouse next week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The ever-increasing popularity of these exhibitions and demonstrations of tasty ways to prepare delectable food is sufficient testimonial of the interest in them by the women of Newton. This year, with the school sessions being held in the evening, it will also be possible for any men who are interested in culinary art to attend as well. Remember, our cooking schools are run for your pleasure and benefit-there is no cost-everything is free. Everyone is in-

Powers' Paragraphs

Alderman Charles Hughes has taken the initiative in moving to abolish the custom of the Newton Board of Aldermen holding a meeting on Jan. 1 in those years when there is no inaugural of the City Government, such as this year. As city elections are now held bienially in Newton, the Mayor and Aldermen are inaugurated only every other year. We again suggest as we have a couple of times in past years, that the city charter be changed so that the inaugural of our city government shall be held on some other day during the first week of January than on January 1. Since New Year's Day was made a legal holiday in Massachusetts, the number of Newton, attacked "outrageous profits".

At the Newton Community For-Newton, attacked "outrageous profits". in Massachusetts, the number of Newton citizens attending the ordinary inaugural exercises in this city could be counted on one's fingers. This is not a healthy civic condition.

One of the most flagrant acts of vandalism in Newton for some time was that committed late on New Year's Eve, when some thugs broke three large plateglass windows in buildings on Needham st., Newton Highlands. Two were in the office of L. Frank Perkins, and one in the office of the Hall Mfg. Company. The windows were valued at $150. Large stones taken from in front of a nearby filling station were used by whoever broke the windows. Decent people do not begrudge anyone enjoying themselves properly on New Year's Eve, but when the celebration of New Year's Eve, but when the celebration of Saturnalia, the ornery element in any community who give vent to the meanness in them should be arrested and prosecuted. One of the most flagrant acts of Senator Louis Connors of Waltham has filed a bill to provide for the laying out and construction of the long proposed State highway from the Galen st. bridge at Watertown, skirting the Charles River at Nonantum and Newtonville, and thence along the river through Waltham. We hope Senator Connors' bill meets with success. We also hope that this highway, if built, will follow the route originally planned, which will be adjacent to the Charles River from Galen st. to Bemis, and not along California st. in Nonantum. The latter plan is ridiculous. There have been many automobile accidents and fatalities on California st. in past years. To route a State highway over this street, in a thickly settled community, would be assuring a large increase in the number of accidents and deaths involving motor vehicles. Senator Louis Connors of Waltham ing motor vehicles.

There is an interesting letter in the GRAPHIC this week from Alderman John Temperley. It is 67 years since John came to reside in the Upper Falls. He was only a tiny child when he arrived with his parents from England. For over 40 years he has attended nearly every meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen. We have not met any resident of this city who possesses such knowledge of Newton as does John Temperley, and he certainly is an authority on Newton Upper Falls and the villages adjacent to it.

We are amused at Mr. Temper-and the villages adjacent to it.

We are amused at Mr. Temperley's references to the attempts made by more recent residents of what used to be known as Upper Falls to be known as inhabitants of more "high-toned" sections of this city. Waban has not only been extended to include territory extending to the Worcester turnpike. Some folks residing in the vicinity of Washington st., near the former Woodland Park Hotel, also claim to reside in Waban.

Superiority complex is as old as human history, and undoubtedly existed in pre-historic times. We believe it will continue to exist in some form or other even though this plan-lieve it will continue to exist in some form or other even though this planet of ours changes to world-wide communism, international socialism or alleged democracy. Adolf Hitler and his followers certainly believe in racial superiority. We still have royalty, nobility and aristocracy in democratic Britain. And despite the current condemnation of those who are accused of stirring up class hatreds in our democratic U. S. A. there are a large number of snobs and prigs in this country. It doesn't seem to occur to them that they came into this world in the same humble way as did those whom they look into this world in the same humble way as did those whom they look down upon, that their physical (if not mental) processes are the same, and that after death they return to the dust from whence they came. It would not be reasonable to suppose that Newton, unlike any other community, would be entirely free of persons afflicted with superiority complex, which usually is a manifestation of inferiority complex, because persons who have real breeding are not snobs. They possess sufficient culture, and are sufficient culture, and are sufficiently assured of their social standing to be genuinely democratic and unassuming.

ung. Upper Falls is not the only village in this city which is looked down on by the persons afflicted with superiority (or inferiority) complex. Nonantum shares this distinction. Since the name of that village was changed over a half century age from North the name of that village was changed over a half century ago from North Village to the Indian name of this community, some "climbers" in this city have feared to be associated with Nonantum. As a small child the writer resided alongside Nonantum street at Newton Corner. We remember the name of the street was changed to "Charlesbank Road" at the instigation of a woman with social aspirations who at that time resided on that street. And, within the past year "Nonantum" was not or young men were dratted into miritary and naval service at 31 per day or less.

At the Newton Community Forum last Sunday the speaker, Bruce Bliven, attacked "outrageous profitering" on contracts in connection with our National Defence Program. Mr. Bliven only reasserted (or echoed) what thousands of persons all over this country have been saying, and writing. It's "the same old story in the same old way," as was witnessed in 1917 and 1918 when "dollar a year men" and "cost plus 10 per cent contractors" became millionaires, when make-believe mechanics received ridiculous wages in war ics received ridiculous wages in war preparation activities, when millions of young men were drafted into mil-itary and naval service at $1 per day or less.

Two days ago President Roosevelt presented a budget of $17,485,528,049 to Congress, and stated that still more funds will be asked. In addition to these staggering sums, the President told that we will have to raise billions of dollars to aid Britain. And to meet these terrific expenses the President said that the people of the U. S. A. must pay additional taxes. Mr. Roosevelt told of the rapidly rising national income, which he estimated at $87,000,000,000 for the fiscal year. It is true that the fortunate contractors on Government orders, and the fortunate employees who work for these contractors and at arsenals, navy yards, ship building plants, and other places where war equipment is being manufactured will have increased incomes. But, how about the millions of us who are not sharing in this increased income, and whose actual income is being really decreased because of the increased cost of living? We are the doormats. You can't blame labor for asking increased wages when employees know that their employers are making large profits. And you can't blame the unfortunate millions who are not sharing the milk and honey which are flowing from the National Defence Program spigots if they don't enthuse over the prospect of unincreased incomes, increased cost of living, and much higher taxes.

Newton Holy Name Societies Meet

The annual observance of Holy Namo Sunday by parishes of the Newtons was observed last Sunday afternoon at Mary Immaculate Church, Upper Falls. Over 800 members attended. The Holy Name Societies participating included: Our Lady's parish, Newton; St. Bernard's, West Newton; Corpus Christi, Auburndale; St. John's, Lower Falls; Mary Immaculate, Upper Falls; Sacred Heart, Newton Centre; St. Philip Neri, Waban.

Bishop Richard J. Cushing, pastor of Sacred Heart Church preached the sermon and pontificated at the solemn benediction. He was assisted by Rev. John Sheridan of Our Lady's Church, deacon; Rev. John Condon, sub-deacon; Rev. Henry Riordan, master of ceremonies.

Advance Gift Solicitors Start Fund Campaign

With the challenge of Clarence B. Randall of Chicago, vice-president of the Inland Steel Company and speaker at the preliminary gifts dinner of the 1941 Greater Boston Community Fund, ringing in their ears, advance gifts solicitors of the Newton Community Chest started out this week on their task of securing pledges for the "social defense" of the community.

"There is no civic cause which lies closer to my heart than the Community Fund," Mr. Randall stated, "because I believe it is the acid test of our sincerity about democracy as the way of life." Mr. Randall has himself been active for many years in the support and direction of private charitable service in Chicago and has traveled throughout the country addressing volunteer Chest workers on this subject which, he savs, "is so vital to national defense."

Letters To The Editor

UPPER FALLS BOUNDS STATE OF MIND TO SOME

To the Newton Graphic:

"Ancient Gaul is divided in three parts," the student reads in his book on old Europe. Ancient Upper Falls has been divided in 'steen parts for various causes one of which borders on a state of mind.

Time was when the bounds of Upper Falls extended much beyond the limits of what is now Precinct One.

per Falls extended much beyond the limits of what is now Precinct One, Ward Five. A large part of what is now the Highlands was known as Oak Hill. Upper Falls then extended west and northwest from near West Newton to the Lower Falls line. Children those days living on Woodward and Beacon sts. and vicinity attended school at Lower Falls, Upper Falls or the Highlands. Much of the territory before the Circuit railroad was built in 1885-6 was largely fields or woods. That part of Upper Falls soon after became to be known as Waban. Carriers from the Waban postal station now deliver mail along Chestnut south as far as Boylston st. (known in old town days as "the lower place").

Old Upper Falls 120 years ago

deliver mail along Chestnut south as far as Boylston st. (known in old town days as "the lower place").

Old Upper Falls 120 years ago and down through the years thrived with many industries, among which might be mentioned a small shop in which the first bicycles in America were said to have been built; an iron mill, cotton mill, fire works, shop for building cotton mill machinery, locomotive works, Newton pumping station, paper mill, grist mill, rubber mill, silk mill, fire alarm shop and one or two glue shops. One of the glue shops was located on the bank of the Charles River about 1500 feet southwest of the railroad station in Waban. Long ago the not-too-agreeable odor of boiling hides surcharging the air for thousands of feet, gave way to the scent roses and other bloom wafted on the breeze from gardens within sight of the one-time glue shop. That part of Upper Falls (now Waban) also for years was the site of the city home. The home some years ago was relocated on Winchester st., Oak Hill, near the Working Boys' Home.

So much for the background of Upper Falls. Its people in early days were largely Yankee, later came nationalities from Northern Europe, followed by races further South and the Near East. In some quarters—perhaps not intentional—there have been noticed a disposition to consider Precinct One, Ward Five, as a section for uplifters. Upper Falls denizens, however, are as human as those of the rest of Newton, blessed with laudable aspirations, yet not without many of the folibes common to mortals. Suffice to say people here, as the records show, on call have railled to the defense of our country and do respond to demands for support of civic and benevolent causes.

Let it be understood that Upper Falls is a defined area of Newton.

for support of civic and benevolent causes.

Let it be understood that Upper Falls is a defined area of Newton, and not a state of mind. Persons living in it indicate a somewhat inferiority complex if they should attempt to give the impression that they live elsewhere. And to have Upper Falls shunted about in print, as is being done, disconcerting to some, provokes a laugh among old residents. The efforts to deceive in print are so obvious that only those who wish to be, are misled. Just consider the picture postcard on sale—"Echo Bridge, Waban," and houses on certain streets for sale advertised as located in the Highlands (one of them 1000 feet from the Emerson School). Other instances of mislocation might be mentioned. Upper Falls is possessed of attractiveness for those who elect to live there. "Beautiful for situation," much of the village "is set upon a hill which cannot be hid."

Renamed to Honorary Group

Selected as one of a group of insurance agents from coast to coast who have maintained the highest professional standards, Alvord Bros. of Newton Centre, Mass., were reelected to membership in the Live Members Club, honorary organization composed of outstanding representatives of the Lumbermen's Mutual Casualty Company, it was learned today.

Mr. Alvord was notified of this honor last week by James S. Kemper, President of the Lumbermen's. In writing to him, Mr. Kemper said, "Your record as a producer, underwriter, counselor for your clients, and representative for your company, fully met the requirements for membership, an achievement of which you may well be proud. In earning your continued membership in the Live Members Club, I am sure that you have also developed an even greater asset, in the form of increased good will and respect from the better citizens of your community."

Membership in the club is limited to one year. At the time of re-election, the past twelve months' performance of each member is carefully reviewed before he is re-admitted to the organization for the ensuing year. Mr. Alvord declared that he was very happy to learn of his re-election, and that he would bend every effort to continue to observe the high standards he had always endeavored to maintain.

People of all nationalities visit the Red Cross headquarters in England and other war-stricken countries, looking with hopeful eyes for the precious garments and packages which the American Red Cross is hastening overseas as fast as ships and finished articles are available.

Mrs. Carl H. Hanson, chairman of evolent Society of Newton Upper Falls held their Installation of Officers at Forester's Hall on Sunday, January 5. The following officers were installed for the coming year by Mr. Luigi Conti, master of ceremonies.

President, Antonio Accettullo; vice president, Francesco Sorrentino; recording secretary, Giovanni Geraci; financial secretary, Giovanni Geraci; financial secretary, Romeo Garofalo; treasurer, Gaetano Valente; auditor, Marselli Francesco; trustees, Luigi Addinizio, Cosimo Covino, Filippo Vano; counselers, Paolo Schiavone, Elanterio Bove; sergeant at arms, Michele Lo Priore, Gennaro Guidi; chairman of hospitality, Frank Marsello.

Pefreshments were covered by the rational organization to meet the requests from the British Red Cross. Information as to how such groups may be formed may be secured by calling Mrs. Hanson, at Production Headquarters, 297 Walnut st., Newtonville, BiGelow 8700. This quota is for articles that were to be supplied by January, and soon a new quota will be announced, according to new needs.

In every case the aid of the Amer-

In every case the aid of the Amer-ican Red Cross is in answer to spe-cific requests from the British Red Cross and the Women's Voluntary Service, the organization which dis-ributes the clothing in England tributes Though the ciothing in England. They are urging the response to the need for warm clothing, for blankets that may be used in the air shelters, and especially for complete outfits, about ten garments each, for 200,000 children between the ages of six months and five years old.

A new project, of great comfort to women who were forced to flee from their homes without their personal possessions, is the making and packing of 20,000 "utility kits" to be sent to London for distribution in air raid shelters.

London newspapers express grati-tude for these packages of clothing from America, and state that the first call is for all the American things, for they are new, freshly wrapped, and meet their needs so per-fectly.

These are the activities of the American women which must go on. Their greatest work is in repairing this human damage. And in order that the Newton Chapter of Red Cross may do its share of these activities, it looks to the families of Newton to become contributory members. The chairman of the Roll Call, Mrs. Henry T. Patch, reports that up to the end of December, 1940, the Newton Chapter had a membership of 6.992 towards the quota necessary of 8,000. The Red Cross expresses its sincere appreciation to all those who have joined. Although the Roll Call has ended, officially, the Chapter would be glad to receive further contributions, to assist its quota of funds for all its activities during the coming year.

The Omicron Young Men's Club will hold a dinner meeting at 6:30 on Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A. Program plans will be discussed.

On Monday night, January 20th, the second Young Men's Nite sponsored by the Y will be held. In addition to the dinner, a representative from the Department of Justice will speak. This should prove to be a very interesting talk, and it is hoped that many young men will avail themselves of this opportunity. Cost of the dinner will be 40c.

On the day before Christmas, under the auspices of the Friends of Boys, Inc., and with the assistance of Dr. Everett C. Herrick, President of Andover Newton Theological School, the Reverend Edward W. W. Lewis gave a party for about one hundred of the neediest boys in Newton. Mr. Lewis wishes to thank the managers of stores in Newton who gave liberally of their candies, fruits and nuts that the party should be more of a joy to the boys.

The Friends of Boys was incor-and nuts that the party should be more of a joy to the boys.

The Friends of Boys was incorporated in New Haven, Connecticut, in 1911. Its philosophy was and is to help "untouched boys," boys who have little or no contact with civil or social organizations. It is not merely another boys' work agency, but it has developed methods of helping boys help themselves, of organizing communities to provide conditions essential to such activity, and of training men for this type of leadership. Its good influence has spread successfully through many large cities in the United States.

In the fall of 1939, the Friends of Boys, Inc., started its effective work in Greater Boston. It was through this organization that Mr. Lewis has been serving in Newton. The Newton branch has been emphasizing the education of the needy untouched boys in the fields of citi-

untouched boys in the fields of citizenship, manners, employment, sportsmanship, recreation, athletics, further training and higher education. One of the outstanding accomplishments of last year's Newton work was the placing of one of the boys, a boy who otherwise could not have gone, in college.

Although the work of last year in Newton was supported by contributions from the outside, it is the hope of the Greater Boston director, Don C. Churchill (3 Joy st., Boston), and the Newton leader that the citizens of Newton will investigate the good work and contribute to its support.

_Fire Report

"From this table it will be observed the department should be increased by at least 30 additional men and there should also be an additional assistant chief. During the vacation season the effective strength of the department is reduced by approximately 10 men, which leaves most of the engine companies with less than four men on duty, which condition is not desirable in fire service. We would, therefore, recommend that 10 additional men be appointed, making a total increase of 41."

According to the report there should be appointed to bring the department to proper strength for the two-platoon system—one assistant chief, ten officers, and twenty privates. This is the number specified by Chief Randlett in the report he made to the Board of Aldermen several months ago. The committee representing the Newton firemen stated that only 18 additional men would be needed; and the special committee of the Board of Aldermen reported that 24 more firemen would suffice.

Hold Hearing On Draftee Who Had Teeth Extracted

A hearing was held at City Hall on Tuesday night by members of the Draft Board of District 114 to investigate the case of a registrant who was recently rejected as physically unfit because of having an insufficient number of molars, shortly after this registrant had some teeth extracted at a dental office in Boston. The dentist who extracted the teeth was notified to be present at the hearing. After the hearing, A. Leslie Harwood, Jr., chairman of the Draft Board of District 114 made the following statement—"The Board held a routine hearing regarding a particular registrant, and nothing developed which reflects in any way on any individual concerned."

The Board announced that John J. Higgins, 87 Washington st., Newton, who had been selected for induction on January 8, had been granted a temporary deferment. In his place, the Board notified Allan Tenney, 31 Knowles st., Newton Center, to report for induction on January 8 to be inducted. They are—Frank W. Jackson, 2nd, 430 Centre st., Newton; Leslie Volpe, 877 Beacon st., Newton Center; Leonard Jones, 283 Tremont st., Newton; Ettore Corsi, 409 Langley rd., Newton Center. The first three of these five volunteered. All five were accepted.

Joseph A. Leonard, 39, of 27 Pembroke st., Newton, was fined $50 by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court on Thursday for leaving the scene of an accident. He was also given a three months' suspended prison sentence. On December 21 a car driven by Leonard hit a taxi on Pearl st., Newton, at Jewett st. The taxi was driven by George Reynolds of 432 Newtonville ave., and three passengers in it were reported as having regers in it were reported as having received injuries.

A front registration plate dropped off Leonard's car at the scene of the collision and enabled police to trace the automobile which was found abandoned shortly afterward on Charles River rd. near Faneuil. Thomas Donnelly, attorney for Leonard, stated that his client waited around at the scene of the accident for a couple of minutes and then became panicky and drove off because he feared the indignation of his wife who owned the car.

IF YOUR HAIR IS THINNING IF DANDRUFF THREATENS OR YOUR SCALP ITCHES ...

GIVE YOUR SCALP AND HAIR THE BENEFITS OF THIS NEW, NON-ALCOHOLIC

MOR-LOX MULLEIN TREATMENT

It is the very latest relief for those who are hair worried, and takes but a few minutes of your time. Here's how simple this sensible, natural plant treatment is:

First, shampoo your hair with a pure vegetable soap, to cleanse the scalp of all dirt, and accumulated skin tissue waste. Then, after rinsing with tepid water, rub the hair and scalp thoroughly with soft towel until hair is almost dry.

When this has been done, apply enough MOR-LOX MULLEIN liquid to moisten the hair and rub this gently into the scalp pores with a rotary finger-tip massage. By continuing this light scalp massage you will stimulate blood circulation, and enable the plant liquid to penetrate the tiny scalp pores, thus helping them to function normally. Remember that it is the constant choking up of these tiny pores that often causes the condition you wish to relieve.

If you will give your scalp and hair the care they are entitled to,

First, shampoo your hair with a pure Two or three minutes of this finger

If you will give your scalp and hair the care they are entitled to, and will continue the MOR-LOX MULLEIN TREATMENT for a reasonable length of time, we feel sure you will be well satisfied with the results of your twice-a-day efforts. As every sensible person realizes, you cannot expect to overcome hair and scalp disorders of long standing except by constant, conscientious care. The MOR-LOX MULLEIN TREATMENT will assist in stimulating blood circulation where it is most needed, will help allay itching scalp, and will tend to rid your scalp of unsightly dandruff. START to care for your hair today. You will find it well worth while. We prepare the MOR-LOX MULLEIN TREATMENT in our own

This is a change from the program listed in the year book, and the meeting will be held at eight o'clock at the home of Miss Rosa Allen, 75 Prairie ave, instead of at the club house.

Miss Allen, who is chairman for the evening, will present Mrs. Seth F. A. Wood who will tell of this industry of which the Allen family are among the pioneer manufacturers. Mrs. Wood who is related to the family, has a valuable collection of her own to show and with these will be the rare and unusual patterns which belong to the Allen family.

The business meeting will be conducted by the chairman of the group Miss Marie Legnard, and refreshments and social hour will follow. Miss Marie Legnard, and refresh ments and social hour will follow.

The Auburndale Review Club

What shall be the topic for study in 1941-1942 will not only be discussed, but decided when the Review Club holds its special mid-winter business meeting on Tuesday morning, January 14th at ten o'clock at the home of Miss Alice Dike, 41 Woodland rd.

During its fifty years of existence, nearly every country has been included in its programs as well as book reviews, lives of famous persons and most of the fine arts. Suggestions for the coming year will be made by each member, and at the close, a vote taken to decide. At the next program meeting, one week later, the president, Mrs. James G. Patter-

The Auburndale Review Club

With her best wishes for a happy New Year to each member of the club, Mrs. James G. Patterson, its president, opened the meeting on Tuesday morning, January 7, at the home of Mrs. Edmund Wilson, 41 As-pen ave.

The reports from chairmen of the The reports from chairmen of the Standing Committees included one from Mrs. John Heibeck in charge of Community Service. She thanked those who had contributed so generously to the candy collected for the shell-shocked veterans to whom other gifts can not be given safely.

For the Art committee, Mrs. E. Sherman Chase urged the club to attend the display of miniature rooms which were at the World's Fair and which now are to be seen at the Museum of Fine Arts.

Mrs. Heibeck was chairman for the program of the morning, and opened it with her own paper on two of the South American liberators, Bolivar and San Martin.

The former, Simon Bolivar, was pictured from early childhood as a boy whose headstrong traits made it impossible for tutors to discipline him, and necessarily he grew up to be egotistical, yet easily influenced by anything which caught his attention. anything which caught his attention.

A visit to the United States where he saw how the slaves had been freed, influenced him to return to South America and try to throw off the yoke of Spain and his efforts the yoke of Spain and his efforts gained for him the title of "Libera-tor of South America" although his success was very limited.

In contrast to him, Mrs. Heibeck pictured San Martin as one whose aim was not to conquer so much as to liberate. The names of both are very dear to South Americans.

dear to South Americans.

"Americas to the South" a book on the different countries of South America and written by a young American journalist, Whitaker, was reviewed by Mrs. W. A. Van Atten. Confining her paper largely to the chapters on Chile, she said the author considered this to be the most important of the South Americas. She quoted the governor of that country, after a long interview with the author, to admit, that while he hated interviews, nevertheless he liked Americans. Only the adherence to the Monroe Doctrine by them and by us, said the author, would preserve good feeling.

NEWTON GIRL SCOUTS HOLD NEWTON BUSINESS MAN LEADS
OPEN HOUSE
FREE EDUCATIONAL COURSE

Newton people who are interested in this democracy of ours and the part the youth of America plays in it have had an opportunity to see 'democracy in the making' at the Auburndale Girl Scout House at 89 Grove st. Auburndale.

On Wednesday afternoon, January 8, Troop 22, of Newtonville under the able leadership of Mrs. Elmer Pilsbury, Mrs. H. W. Buschen and Mrs. R. H. Forbes presented a program of First Aid and Shadow-graphs. At the same time, Troop 9 of Auburndale with Mrs. John Wheelock and Mrs. Bradley Hill participated in a Dramatics program.

Troop 18 of Auburndale demonstrated to friends who came to Open House a program which covered projects in Dramatics, Star-gazing and Cooking. Mrs. Frederick Goode, Mrs. Russell Ford and Mrs. L. W. Chandler were the leaders of the troop.

The younger sisters in Girl Scouting, the Brownies belong to their friends what good citizens they can be by participating in a doll festival at the Scout House on Thursday afternoon. The Brownies belong to Troop 86. Their leaders were: Mrs. Carleton Bell and Mrs. Elliot Laidaw.

On Thursday evening a group of Senior Girl Scouts, members of Troop 66 enfor Girl Scouts, members of Troop 66 enforced for the Newtonville event has a series of free evening extension of Lasses Show Phenomenal Growth 18 pagina free chosen group in the Newtonville classes, are all starting the same program and

On Thursday evening a group of Senior Girl Scouts, members of Troop 11, Newton Highlands, Miss Helen McClure leader, explained to their friends the process which they carried out in editing a newspaper, the Highland Scoutonian, which is circulated in Newton Highlands and is excnanged with many towns across the country. They also did some work on Red Cross knitting and sewing which is part of their service to their community.

On Friday afternoon Troop 36 of Waban under the leadership of Mrs. Richard Bean and Mrs. J. G. Cook presented a Court of Honor in which they evaluated the projects which they participated in during the year and made plans for the ensuing few months. Various members of the troop entertained their group of friends with informal entertainment which they had prepared for in their merit badge work.

Open House came to a close on Friday evening when two of Newton's Mariner Ships Troops 3 and 8 demonstrated the type of activities that Mariners participate in in preparation for summer sailing activities. The leaders of these groups are: Mrs. Kenneth Crafts, Mrs. Alex Shannon, Miss Corime Diller, Miss Doris Connington, Miss Cora May Farrier and Classes Show Phenomenal Growth

The Henry George School extends an invitation through the columns of the GRAPHIC to attend any of these classes. Attendance at any of these classes involves no obligation whatever. The first Newtonville class meets in the assembly room in the Newtonville Public Library building on Tuesday, January 14 at 7:45 p. m. Certificates will be awarded again this year to those satisfactority completing this course. All Newton taxpapers will find the course to be of vital interest.

NEWTON EDUCATOR GIVES VIEWS

magazine "Country Gentleman" articles on education by Margaret Weymouth Jackson, author, parent, and school board member, stating the case against certain methods employed in public schools aroused considerable response in letters to the editor of that magazine. Approximately two thirds of the letters were in approval of Mrs. Jackson's views. Among those disapproving was a letter from Haydn S. Pearson, principal of the Bigelow Junior High School of Newton, which is being published among others in the forthcoming issue of the magazine. Mr. Pearson's letter reads as follows:

"Seriously, the lady is wrong. She's missed the point so wide that she creates a draft. There are a lot of things I could say about parents and people like Mrs. Jackson. Suffice it to say, we have tests that prove children learn better today than they did under old methods; that you can't prepare youth for 1940 life by 1900 methods. I'd like like to have you and Mrs. Jackson visit this school. I think you'll find a school that still teaches the fundamentals and is very progressive." magazine "Country Gentleman" arti-cles on education by Margaret Wey-

RECENT DEATHS

REV. HARRY LUTZ

Rev. Harry Lutz, 70, retired Unitarian Minister, passed away at his home, 401 Broadway, Cambridge, Friday, Jan. 3, 1941.

He was a native of Ohio, received his education at Waynesburg College, Pa. and was admitted to the Bar of the Supreme Court, Columbus, Ohio, in 1895. After practicing law for three years in Circleville, Ohio, he entered the Meadville Theological School, and after further study at Harvard Divinity School, was ordained at King's Chapel, Boston.

His first pastorate was at Rock-

School, and after further study at Harvard Divinity School, was ordained at King's Chapel, Boston.

His first pastorate was at Rockland, Mass. He then served as minister in the Unitarian Churches of Belfast, Maine, and Billerica, Mass. For eleven years he served as pastor of Channing Church, Newton, Mass., and in 1921 was called to the Unitarian Church of Sanford, Maine. He then went to Norfolk, Virginia, to establish the new church society there. Before retiring in 1936, he served the Third Congregational Society of Cambridge, Mass., during the preparation for merging into the First Church of Harvard Square.

During the last several years, Mr. Lutz has been honorary president of the Boston Browning Society following many years of activity in that organization. He was formerly a member of the Twentieth Century Club of Boston. During his more active years he was prominent in the Masonic Lodge. He became Past Master at Belfast, Maine, and was chaplain of the Masonic Lodge of Newton. Last year he became an honorary member of the Corinthian Lodge of Masons of Norfolk, Va.

Mr. Lutz. leaves a widow, formerly Mary E. Smith, of Circleville, Chio, and two sons, Robert E. Lutz, Professor of Chemistry at the University of Virginia, and Roger A. Lutz.

A memorial service will be held at the First Church, Unitarian in Cambridge, Harvard Square, at 4 p. m. Sunday.

Want Preferential Voting Abolished

Thomas Morahan of Tremont st., Newton, has presented a bill to the Legislature asking for the abolition of preferential voting at city elections in Newton. In 1916 influential nersons in Newton. In 1916 influential nersons in Newton had a bill passed by the Legislature which abolished party designations in city elections in Newton, and introduced preferential voting. If there were more than two candidates for an office, voters could vote for a second choice. If there were more than three candidates, voters could ballot for second and third choices. A candidate had to obtain a majority of first choice votes, or both first and second choice votes would count. If a candidate did not obtain a majority on both first and second choice votes would count. In several instances in the past 24 years candidates for Aldermen have been elected by the addition of the second choice votes, although they ran second first choice votes.

Morahan also has criticised the action of the Board of Aldermen at the last meeting in selecting Warner Eustis to succeed Clarence Colbys as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 7 because of the latter's resignation. Morahan contends that inasmuch as he was runner-up to Colby in the last city election, he should have been selected to fill Colby's unexpired term.

Henry E. Bothfeld Urges Safety In Savings

Hon. Henry E. Bothfeld, president of the Newton Savings Bank, has sent the following letters to depositors with dividend checks for January 1941.

"The remarkable and unmatched success of this country has been due largely to the great number of thrifty and far-sighted savers who deposited their surplus funds in the banks where they could be profitably loaned out for productive purposes at reasonable rates. In return for depositing these funds the individual received a proportion of such income in the form of interest.

This bank has for the last three years maintained a 2½ per cent interest rate, despite decreasing returns on our investments.

turns on our investments.

This return has now reached a point where it becomes necessary to adopt one of two courses: Invest in sub-standard securities with a somewhat greater risk, or 2. Reduce savings account inter-

Found Guilty Of Wife's Parking Error

Samuel Kaufman of 40 Whittier rd., Newtonville, was arraigned in the Newton court on Wednesday on a charge of illegal parking of his automobile. Patrolman Marshall had placed a three-way tag on the car when he observed it being parked in a restricted area at Walnut st., Newtonville. Kaufman ignored the summons to appear at the Clerk of Court's office, so a complaint against him was issued, and he had to come to court instead. He pleaded not guilty, stated that it was his wife who had parked the car, and she was Experience has taught us that our depositors are more interested in Safety of Principal, and we, therefore, choose the latter course. On January 10, 1941, the interest rate on savings accounts will be 2 per cent. Dates of payments and the method of computiting interest will remain the same. This interest rate will be increased whenever conditions of the investment market warrant.

Continuing to make hay while the sun shines, though the mixed metaphor has nothing at all to do with a hockey rink, the Newton high hockey team continues to chalk up victories which keep them on the heels of the league leading Melrose sextet. Like Newton, the Ell ponders continue on the victory path and the two teams have gradually drawn away from the rest of the circuit to make it appear that the final drive down the home stretch may well be between these two teams in the Greater Boston Interscholastic Ice Hockey league. Tomorrow's games, which will be the first of the season to be played at the Boston Arena instead of the Garden, mark the halfway point in the league competition. Newton chalked up two wins in its first two-games within a week taking Cambridge Latin into camp last Saturday, 3 to 1, and pinning a 1 to 0 shutout onto Medford in the last minute of play on Wednesday's two-game card. Phil Fessenden and Joe Beatty last minute of play on Wednesday's two-game card.

Phil Fessenden and Joe Beatty were the duo which earmarked the win over the Cantabs. In about three minutes of play in the first session this combination had tallied twice with Beatty caging the first on a neat pass from his teammate and a couple of minutes later reversing the situation. The Latinites pressed hard and finally got back in the running, beating McKenna with a touch shot to make it two to one. In the final period, however, Fessenden went down the ice with Jimmy Corcoran, took a pass from the latter and notched the tally which sunk the Cantabs hopes.

On Wednesday it was a nip and tuck affair with Medford all the way. It was a fortunate Newton team which battled the blue and which put on a continuous attack despite the loss of several regulars because of illness. Bill McKenna, in the Newton net, did a grand job of goal-tending to repeatedly thwart the Medford thrusts. Holding the uper hand all the way Medford threatened constantly to tuck away the disc into the strings for the all-important tally. There were only 28 seconds left to play when Phil Fessenden got hold of the puck over near the boards close to the penalty line. Before he could be covered he let go a smoking drive from about thirty feet away that got by Goalle Tuminelli to blink the red light. Catholic Welfare Comm. Holds Annual Meeting At Our Lady's School

Rev. John Sheridan Gives Report on National Conference at Chicago

The annual meeting of the Newton Catholic Welfare Committee was held in the Auditorium of the High School of Our Lady, Newton, Sunday afternoon, January 12th.

President Charles C. Dasey first introduced the Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Rev. John A. Sheridan, who presented a report of the proceedings at the National Conference of Catholic Charities at Chicago, which he and President Dasey attended on November 15th to 19th.

Financial Secretary, John J. Ca-

Financial Secretary, John J. Cahill, reported that in the 12 months past, 61 volunteer workers of the organization made 4937 visits to the homes of 459 families who had been aided, representing 2389 persons.

Mr. John F. Brown, President of the Newton District Nursing Association gave an interesting and comprehensive talk on the history and servicees by the visiting nurses in Newton, bringing out that although largely formed for the purpose of rendering free service to the very poor, the scope of the district nursing association had been broadened so that in addition to free service, they now provide nursing treatments they now provide nursing treatments for a small payment which is less than cost and also provide nursing service at cost for those able and willing to pay.

service at cost for those able and willing to pay.

William G. O'Hara, Secretary of the Board of Public Welfare for the City of Boston was the principal speaker and delivered a splendid address touching on public assistance from the early days before Boston became a City, and up to the present time. He touched on the economic development and financial changes in the 19th century and dwelt comprehensively with the legislation and practices of Public Welfare for the last 40 years.

The meeting was very well attended including not only the members of the Catholic Welfare group but representatives of the other social agencies in Newton and Maynard Hutchinson, Treasurer and Lyscom A. Bruce, Executive Secretary of the Newton Community Chest.

In Father Sheridan's report he referred to the sermon delivered by Bishop Alter of Toledo at the pontifical mass celebrated in connection with the conference. Bishop Alter stressed the misunderstanding between social work and charity, and expressed the hope that there would be a reconciliation between the two.

"There are some," he said, "who hold that charity is no longer the

A Proclamation By His Honor Paul M. Goddard, Mayor

In this great crisis in the world's history how fortunate we are to be free to pursue our daily affairs, unfettered by the horrors of war while the security of civilization is threatened by sinister forces almost beyond our power of comprehension. Here in America we believe more than ever before in democracy and in the equality of mankind. That belief must prevail.

The tremendous task of preparation to which this country is now committed is not only for the defense of our lives and homes, but for the defense of that democratic ideal which seeks to make life worth the living for the free peoples of the world. We can fulfill our mission if we build upon a firm foundation. Social distress, disease, suffering and privation undermine that foundation, and our society is threatened if relief is not given. Our people, and particularly our youth, must have the opportunity to develop the ideals of true citizenship.

Machines and tools are worthless unless manned by healthy, strong human beings, imbued with the spirit, courage and determination to do the job. Every city, town, village and hamlet has the obligation to attack, provide for, and solve its social problems. That is what Greater Boston is doing now. The Greater Boston Community Fund, with which our Newton Community Chest is now cooperating, unites and calls on every citizen to work and to give in order that our society may remain strong and that Greater Boston may be capable of doing its part for our National Defense. We urge every single individual to contribute and "Defend Our Community Now." We urge every single individual to contribute and "Defend Our Community Now." PAUL M. GODDARD, Mayor.

Approval of the transfer of Joseph hevarley of Thornton st., Newton rom the Street Department to the ccounting Department, was received on Thursday from the Civil Service mmission by Comptroller of Ac ounts Daniel White. Chevarley has een a clerk at the Crafts st. stable of the Street Department for several of the Street Department for several vears. He is a graduate of the Bentley School of Accounting, and was admitted to the Massachusetts bar in 1939. In December of last year the Board of Aldermen passed an appropriation to provide for Mr. Chevarley's salary as a clerk in the Accounting Department. As no official authorization for the transfer was received from the Civil Service Commissioner, the transfer was not made. The Aldermen will have to authorize another appropriation for "There are some," he said, "who hold that charity is no longer the authentic spokesman in the cause of human welfare, that it is no longer the exponent of the true brotherhood (Continued on Page 4) was received from the Civil Service made. Grippe Raging In Newton, But Peak Seems Passed

2872 Pupils Absent From Public Schools Friday

The epidemic of grippe, which has been spreading over the country the past several weeks, has been caught by thousands of Newton residents. The number of those sick with the disease seemed to reach a peak last week. Physicians, druggists and nurses were kept busy.

disease seemed to reach a peak last week. Physicians, druggists and nurses were kept busy.

In the Newton public schools 24 per cent of the pupils were absent last Friday, 22 per cent on Monday and 21 per cent on Wednesday. On Friday the number of pupils absent from the Newton public schools was 2872 and on Monday, 2589. On Wednesday it had dropped to 2482. On Tuesday the number of teachers absent from their duties in the elementary and junior high schools was 54, and from the high school, 14. On Tuesday 19 policemen were off duty and 14 firemen. Last Saturday Street Commissioner Haughey issued a statement in reply to numerous complaints of the non-collection of garbage during the preceding few weeks. He said that the greatest factor in the poor service had been the flu epidemic, as employees of John Janse, the contractor for the collection of garbage during the preceding few with colds, and it had been difficult to obtain temporary substitutes.

Last Friday the Health Department issued a bulletin, copies of which were given to the school children. The bulletin gave information regarding colds, and influenza, suggestions how to lessen the danger of communicating the disease, and treatment to cure it. It stated that the closing of schools had not proved effective in preventing the spread of colds and influenza, and that persons who try to keep at work after catching a severe cold are those who contribute the greatest number to the death rolls. Among the suggestions are: "avoid persons who are sneezing, coughing or sniffling. Do not expose yourself to inclement weather. Have your home well ventilated, but avoid drafts. Drink plenty of water. Get plenty of rest and sleep. Wash your hands frequently. Go to bed and stay there at the first sign of a cold, and remain there until your physician says it is all right for you to get up. Cover all sneezes and coughs with a handkerthere until your physician says it is all right for you to get up. Cover all sneezes and coughs with a handker-chief, preferably a paper one. Do not encourage visitors."

third annual NEWTON GRAPHIC cooking school came to a close last night at the Newton Centre Woman's Club. Despite the stormy weather a large number of enthusiastic women and several men were in attendance, with few vacant seats in evidence. The opening session on Tuesday evening and also that of Wednesday attracted representative audiences despite the prevalence of illness throughout the city. The demonstration of the many phases of culinary art as made by Miss Ruth Dickie imparted many heipful hints and suggestions to her audiences in the preparation of many appetizing and delightful recipes.

The three sessions of the cooking school, sponsored by the NEWTON GRAPHIC and the Boston Consolidated Gas Company, through its Home Service Department of which Miss Susan A. The prize, a famous 1941 Magic Chef Gas Range, was awarded to Mrs. Anna May Quagliozzi of 39 Spring st., Waltham, as one of those registered at the school and in attendance last evening.

Following each day's program, 24 large bags of groceries, 24 special prizes, 24 bags of food gifts, and the several different foods cooked were given away as well as souvenirs for all those who attended. At the conclusion of the final session prizes donated by Newton merchants, who co-operated in the cooking school, were also awarded. These prizes, totalling in value nearly $100, were received by an enthusiastic and applauding audience. A list of the winners with the prizes awarded them will be printed in the next issue of the GRAPHIC.

Two-Platoon Goes Into Effect on February 1st

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen next Monday night a recommendation will be received from Mayor Goddard asking for an appropriation to provide for 26 additional privates in the Newton fire department. The two platoon system in the department must be established on February 1 as a result of the vote of citizens of Newton at the election in November when they acted favorably on the referendum to establish the two-platoon system. The Mayor will ask for an appropriation of $48,830.84. Of this amount, $29,483.50 is for salaries of 18 privates, $17,935 for salaries of 18 privates, $17,935 for salaries of 18 privates, $17,935 for salaries of 8 Lieutenants and $1412 for equipment, which will include beds, bedding, helmets, etc. The appropriation will cover salaries from February 1 to December 31, 1941. Eight of the twenty-six to be appointed will replace 8 present privates in the department who will be advanced to the rank of Lieutenant.

partment who will be advanced to the rank of Lieutenant.

The twenty-six men who will receive appointments as privates in the Newton Fire Department before the end of this month will be taken from the list of eligibles received from the Civil Service Commission. They are men who took the examination held in the Fall of 1938 and they are quite fortunate. Because, it was expected until two weeks ago that the list of eligibles would be taken from the men who had taken the last examination for this examination was held on October 19, 1940. However, the Civil Service Department has not determined the standing of those who took the examination last October, so the 1938 list was used. So, the men who took the second last examination more than two years ago, get the break. Their entering salary will be $1790 per year, and they will receive an annual increase until the salary reaches $2190.

The twenty-six names submitted by the Civil Service Department, and the addresses of the men are as follows:

The Commission voted to invite members of organizations which have used Newton playgrounds in the past for field-days and fiestas to attend the February meeting. At that time the matter of placing reasonable restrictions on such use of playgrounds will be discussed. In the past complaints from persons residing near playgrounds and from citizens have been received regarding noise of fireworks, gambling and sale of alcoholic beverages in connection with some of these affairs. The Commission voted to invite

His Subject-"Is There An American Philosophy?"

The struggle between democracy and dictatorship, between individualism and communism, class war and even birth control are no new things under the sun, according to Dr. Will Durant, internationally famous writer and philosopher.

Dr. Durant, who lectures here on Sunday, January 19th at the Newton High School Auditorium before members of the Newton Community Forum points out that the ancient Greeks struggled with all of these problems and a great many more which many of us think are peculiar

Over 1400 Good Neighbors of Newton gathered last night in the High School Gymnasium for the "Good Neighbor Dinner" opening the Community Chest Campaign for the support in 1941 of Newton's 14 social and health agencies. A special program was arranged by a committee headed by Joseph B. Jamieson, including a major address by Henry R. Guild, general chairman of the Greater Boston Community Fund, brief talks by Newton leaders, and closing with a special dramatic tableau accompanied by the singing of "God Bless America" by Miss Ruth Parkins and the Highland Glee Club. William V. M. Fawcett, chairman of the Newton Chest Campaign, presided at the meeting, and music was furnished by Haffermehl's orchestra, Louis Heffermehl of Newton Centre, director, and the Highland Glee Club, Ralph M. McLellan, director. Girl and Boy Scouts were ushers. Mayor Paul M. Goddard issued a proclamation opening the Campaign and Mr. Fawcett and A. Leslie Harwood. EVIDENCE OF HELPFUL COMFORT

We publish in another column news of the receipt in England of clothing made by the women of America and sent by the American Red Cross. The individual stories of the eagerness with which these articles are received are real evidence of the helpful comfort that can be given to those in need. The stories are vibrant testimony of the need for continued assistance on the part of the women in knitting and sewing groups in all parts of the country. Newton women are doing their part in a large measure-there is always room for more women who are anxious to give of their time and effort in this worthy cause—their service will be gladly and gratefully welcomed. For in the end life teaches that the greatest happiness is in doing for others in need of those things which we can supply.

OUR COMMUNITY RESPONSIBILITY

The Newton Community Chest campaign for 1941 is officially under way. This year marks the first time since the Chest was organized eight years ago that the local organization has united with the Greater Boston Fund in a co-operative effort to make one campaign where two have formerly been conducted. Under the plan for united action the Newton Chest will retain its own identity, its agencies will be under the supervision of the Newton Chest officials and contributions may be made to any specified agency as heretofore.

We do not need to enlarge upon the necessity for the maintainance of our own Chest agencies, fourteen in number, as our citizens are well acquainted with their work.

While many people realize the contiguity of Boston, a large number have little opportunity to know the work, assistance, and the opportunity for those in need, presented by similar Boston Community agencies, hospitals, private welfare agencies, youth building organizations and the like. As the years go by we realize, however, more and more that as citizens of Newton we are citizens of Greater Boston, of Massachusetts, and of America.

As such we are citizens of a great democracy, the last great democracy left upon this earth. We carry grave responsibilities of our present civilization. We will stand or fall on the question of whether or not as individuals we have the courage and energy to do our duty toward ourselves, our neighbors and their communities, coupled with a faith that justice and righteousness will pre-

In the dictator countries those more fortunate are compelled to provide for the needy by having taken away from them that which is necessary. Here in America we do it voluntarily-with open hearts-in the interests of humanity.

Remember when a Community Fund solicitor comes to see you that you are given a privilege, which is more than a duty to yourself, to do your part. Remember that you are fortunate to live where you do and fortunate that you are an American. Your community belongs to you personally. Give generously and be thankful that you can do so voluntarily.

The campaign for Newton and for Greater Boston must not that Eire agree to yield their seafail. We face it with determination that we will succeed in reaching the goal before us.

Samuel King, delegate to Congress from Hawaii, suggested on Monday that the U. S. A. accept some tiny islands in the mid-Pacifica sa payment from Great Britain for the many billions this country is going to give Britain to carry on the war. Isn't Mr. King artless? Why doesn't he suggest that the U. S. A. receive Baffin Island up in the Arctic in payment for the war supplies, on the contention that it might be used as an airplane base against possible invasion from Greenland?

According to some Congressional leaders, the U. S. A. should not acept Bermuda, the Bahamas or Caribbean Islands as part payment for the war "loans" because "their huge, native populations would constitute social and economic problems of tremendous magnitude." These nearby slands in the Atlantic are vital to the defense of this country, and the U. S. A. is spending many millions to establish bases on them. Great Britain has not deemed these islands undesirable because they constitute social and economic problems of tremendous magnitude, and shows no desire to relinquish them. How gullible we are.

Several months ago residents of Oak Hill were amazed and disturbed when they became aware that a group had been quietly planning to the large area in that section which had been denuded of loam and gravel.

During the past few weeks an increasing amount of space has been given in newspapers of this country to the question of Eire (Irish Free State) permitting the use of a number of its seaports to Great Britain as naval bases and airports. In fact, so many articles (and cartoons) have been released by press associations on this subject, that one might think a propaganda campaign had been devised on this matter. We have read numerous articles and letters in newspapers advocating the ced-During the past few weeks an in read numerous articles and letters in newspapers advocating the ceding of these ports to Britain by Eire. ports to Britain.

It is quite natural for Britain to want the ports in the Irish Free State as bases for her warplanes and naval vessels. Their possession would be of tremendous assistance to Britain in her present critical predicament. It would not surprise us to see Britain take them by force, even though such an act on her part may mean armed resistance with what though such an act on her part may mean armed resistance with what comparatively little resources Eire has. It is a very ticklish situation. Should Britain seize the wanted ports by force, she would be risking possible co-operation between the Nazis and the Irish in bloody warfare in Ireland. It might be analogous to what happened in Greece when that little country was invaded by Italy, thus giving Britain an opportunity to obtain naval and airplane bases in Greece and nearby islands from which it launched devastating attacks on the Fascist army and navy.

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, Jan. 9, 1886
The 50th anniversary of the marriage of Rev. A. B. Earle, D.D., the well known evangelist, and Mrs. Earle of Newton, was celebrated in the Meionaoan, Boston, on Tuesday afternoon and evening. A large number of invitations had been sent to friends of the Reverend Doctor, and more than 1500 paid their respects to him and his wife. The platform of the hall was finely decorated with hemlock boughs, choice hot-house plants, flags and evergreens, in the midst of which sat Mr. and Mrs. Earle. Around the hall cages containing canaries were hung, and the birds vied with the speakers in praising the happy couple. A collation was served in the evening and the exercises continued until 10 o'clock. Newton Graphic, Jan. 9, 1886 The 50th anniversary of the m

Dr. Earle and his lady were the recipients of many costly and beautiful gifts. These included a gold-headed cane presented by the deacons of Temple Church; a pair of gold spectacles, set of gold spoons and knife, china set, a woolen robe and a gold watch and chain.

The inaugural ceremonies in con nection with the incoming city government were held at City Hall on Monday afternoon, January 4. Although the weather was far from propitious, quite a large audience was in attendance.

There is a great need for a safe passage at the B A railroad crossing at Walnut st., Newtonville, either over or under the tracks, and if some provision is not made in the near future, some serious accident will occur.

A company of gentlemen in Newtonville have applied for a charter for a street railway. The proposed route is from the railroad station at Newton Center, via Beacon st. to Walnut st., to Washington st., Newtonville; thence easterly to Newton and westerly to Auburndale. The charter calls for a subscription of $50,000 in shares of $100.

Newton High School has an en-rollment of over 400. This is a larger number than some New England colleges enroll.

Will you allow me a short space on both tickets. He has been a faithful, hard working official, and he represents a portion of our Ward which includes the Nonantum, Aetna and Silver Lake Mills. He has served on important committees with honor and is the senior member of the Common Council. Honor, custom and fair-dealing entitled him to represent the Ward on more important committees than Poor House, Read Fund and Printing. I think he honored himself and his constituents by resigning all these appointments. The Decalogue and Golden Rule, I am thankful to say, still have a place in politics, although for the time being they have received a temporary setback in Newton.

Eager In England For Clothing Being Sent By Red Cross

"America to Britain." This is the simple label upon the thousands of packing cases, containing the clothing made by the women of America, sent by the American Red Cross to the British Red Cross. Editor, Newton Graphic, Newton, Mass. Dear Sir:

Dear Sir:

Use of your columns to reach the people of Newton with the following message is deeply appreciated. Newton's Company C of Col. Paul Kirk's 101st Infantry, Massachusetts National Guard, will leave in a few days with the rest of the regiment for a year's training at Camp Edwards, Bourne, Mass.

Since no library facilities are provided by the camp for literary or recreational purposes we suggest that any one having idle or unwanted volumes of good fiction, textbooks (high school or college), history, biography or works of reference could put them to no better use than by donating them to the 101st Infantry. Recent good magazines will also be helpful.

gletched idea of a patriotic bit, but let us examine the facts.

A conservative estimate of the crop loss annually from insects in the United States is $700,000,000 to $1,000,000,000 and increasing steadily. The present bird population keeps this from being double or triple, but with a 10 per cent increase in bird population this loss would be decreased by 25 per cent.

Of particular interest to everyone is that weed seeds are delectable morsels to the Sparrow family (except English or House, which are not true sparrows) and they now save us in weeding labor about $60,000,000 annually.

Therefore, if food is to win the war and we are to feed Great Britain and also prepare ourselves for the days ahead, spend a few pennies each day feeding the birds so they will be hale and hearty when spring comes and erect a few good bird houses on your premises to help them increase in population—they will return in dollars what you spend in pennies.

The extensive line of new bird house models offered by the Hyde Bird House Co. may be seen and purchased at the New England Toro Company, 1121 Washington st., West Newton.

"It is a fallacy that man lives only for human society or for the state. In this materialistic strain, much of the dominant social thinking of our times is being done. Of course I have described it in its nakedness, and many who are caught up in it, are perhaps unaware of its real nature. From it there comes a monopolistic interest of society or the state in the care of the weak and the poor and the underprivileged. As it would build the life of the individuals without God, as the cornerstone, it seeks to shape the family after a conventualistic, a secularistic pattern, and makes the school a mere social or citizenship training ground. Several Fires In Newton Homes

A fire in the home of Joseph F. Barry, Jr. at 41 Aberdeen st., Newton Highlands caused Barry, his wife and their baby to make a hasty exit from the house at 2:25 Monday morning. The fire started in the cellar and worked up to the first floor, causing damage estimated at $3000. Chief Randlett of the Fire Department said that hot ashes was probably the cause of the fire. The house is owned by Everett Horn of Waban. Fire started in a closet of a bedroom at the former Woodland Park Hotel at 1761 Washington st., Auburndale shortly after midnight, Monday night. Smoke awakened the occupants of the room, Anne Locke of Methuen, and Emmie Dawson of Holyoke. They fought the blaze and with the aid of the night watchman at the big building, now used as a dormitory by Lasell Junior College, had the fire extinguished when Engines 5 and 6 arrived in response to a telephone alarm. The cause was supposed to be spontaneous ignition.

R. Tech 3 NEWTON 2 Brookline 2 Waltham Arlington C. Latin Track

The Newton High School track team opened the 1941 season last Saturday participating in the Class relay events. The locals had one entry in the special invitation events with Ted Woods running the 1000 yards.

yards.

In the one lap relay trials the orange and black quartet was pitted against Medford and Boston English with the former winning the event, Newton second and Boston English

Newton second and Boston English third. The Newton quartet was composed of Ray Hunting, Harry Green-wood, Charles Hyde and Jack Murphy. By winning the trial in Im. 10.4s. Medford qualified for the finals in which Hope St. High of Providence captured the championship. The two-lap relay trials also had Newton facing Medford and Boston English with the latter winning. Medford taking second and Newton third. This Newton quartet included Warren Houston, Ray Hunting, George Thompson and William Rangnow. Boston English, the trial winner, failed to qualify for the finals with a time of 2m. 33.9s.

Receiving its second setback of the season the Newton High hockey team tumbled into third place in the Greater Boston Interscholastic Hockey league standing last Saturday at the Arena. Rindge Tech proved to be Newton's second nemesis in a 3 to 2 game which saw the engineers swapping places with the orange and black. Undefeated Melrose continued to set the pace blanking Stoneham in a 4 to 0 affair. The league competition now has nearly a two-game program on Friday, Jan. 24th, and a four game program on Saturday the 25th. Newton will play on both days, meeting Arlington on Friday and Melrose the following day. Last Saturday's games marked the halfway point and the coming games start the second round of competition. The layoff from league games may be of value to Coach Evan Johnson and his team provided the squad can. that smoked for the tying counter. The teams battled back and forth for the remainder of the period with no scoring and play went into the final session. A half minute after the period began right wing Verrier of Rindge let go a long shot that Mc-Kenna was partially blinded on and was unable to cage rightly as it whizzed by him into the net about waist high. With both teams pressing the rest of the game the defence failed to yield. The league standing: The league standing: Melrose

In the special 1000 yard run Ted Woods found himself in a fast field which included John Malley of Mechanics Arts, Sal Matorozzo of La Salle in Providence, Larry Cullen of St. John's Prep and others. The three place winners were those named with Malley winning a remarkably fine race by coming from the rear to break the tape five yards ahead of Matorozzo.

Billy Alpert, Newton High hurdle champion a year ago and now attending Williston Academy, lost his title to Edwin Sparrow of Browne and Nichols. Sparrow came fast over the last two barriers to nip Alpert.

And black has been handicapped all along with lack of skating and plenty of work is in order now that the Bulloughs Pond rinks have been put into shape.

Against Rindge last Saturday the locals tried valiantly to wind up with a least a tie game. The Engineers took the lead in the first period with league-leading high scorer Benoit caging the puck on a pass from Gagnon in less than a minute and a falf of play. The same pair tallied again midway of the period although the play was reversed with Gagnon on the scoring end.

Newton evened things up in the second preind with sharpshoting.

Newton evened things up in the second period with sharpshooting Phil Fessenden the key man. The Newton wing is third high scorer for the season. At 1.25 in the second session he rifled a shot from behind the penalty line that found the strings. A few minutes later Fessenden split the Rindge defence neatly leaving the puck for Stan Collinson to pick up in front of the Rindge cage. Collinson let go a backhander that smoked for the tying counter. The teams battled back and forth

STACY-HILLIARD

Miss Elizabeth M. Hilliard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perley A. Hilliard of 21 Floral st., Newton Highlands, was married to Walter R. Stacy of Haverhill on Sunday afternoon, January 12, in the Newton Upper Falls Baptist Church. Rev. Harold J. Schlink performed the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white satin velvera and for "something old" she wore an antique necklace woven of tiny beads which was purchased over one hundred years ago by the bride's great-grandfather for his bride, and which was worn by the bride's mother and grandmother at their weddings and has been worn by brides in the family in Kanass, California and Japan, Mrs. Stacy being the nineteenth bride to wear it. Miss Ruth Hilliard, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of blue satin velvera and the bridesmaids, Miss Catherine Douglass and Miss Marcella Douglass of Haverhill cousins of both the bride and groom, wore gowns of pink satin velvera.

Take Charge, Mister_ and LET'S FIREBALL!

THERE'S a new word spreading Through the vocabularies of car owners who have made firsthand acquaintances with this slick new 1941

It's a word we first picked out as an apt description of a new and better engine — but it is rapidly coming to mean a completely new and excitingly pleasurable manner of motorcar travel.

All over the country, "to fireball" now means to enjoy both ease and dispatch in your travel by car with a special new measure of thrift.

Not the ordinary, scrimpy, self-denying sort of thrift, but thrift with all the thrills left in!

Now, just why that happens is easy to understand. Reenforced by Compound Carbure-

Ask Community Chest Workers To Speed Collections

An appeal to all Community Chest An appeal to all Community Chest workers to complete their solicitation this week if possible was issued last night by William V. M. Fawcett following the second report meeting of the Chest Campaigners in the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

A total of $49,723 or 25.2 per cent of the Newton goal was reported raised on Wednesday at noontime and Mr. Fawcett urged workers to speed up solicitations. "There are two main reasons why the Campaign executive committee is anxious to se-speed up solicitations. "There are two main reasons why the Campaign executive committee is anxious to secure as many pledges as possible this week," Mr. Fawcett said. "In the first place we want to insure the continuance of the thousands of human services to the people of our community during 1941. In the second place, as this is the first time we have joined in the Greater Boston Community Fund Campaign, we want to prove that the people of Newton are on their toes. I hope sincerely that our Newton Chest group will be one of the first in the Metropolitan Division to pass its goal, thus giving a stimulus to the whole Campaign." Mr. Fawcett was a guest at the head table at the first report meeting of the Greater Boston Campaign and a large delegation from Newton has been attending each report meeting.

Standing of the divisions to date in the Campaign is as follows:

Advance Gifts 45,456 Woman's 1,465 Residential 2,801 Business—No report. Municipal—No report.

Municipal—No report.

An innovation in the Campaign this year is the awarding of prizes to leading groups in each division. The prizes have been made by boys and girls in the settlement houses supported through the Community Fund. West Newton Community Centre and Rebecca Pomroy House have both cooperated in this project. Headquarters in the villages have been opened each night to receive reports and answer questions about the Campaign or the service of the Chest agencies. Volunteer auditors are on duty each night and village leaders are also in attendance.

Report meetings will be held next week at the Boston Chamber of Commerce on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 12:30. All luncheons at the report meetings are Dutch and Friday at 12:30. All luncheons at the report meetings are Dutch treat. Newton Chest Campaign workers are urged to attend as many of these as possible.

The Campaign closes Wednesday night, February 5.

Newton First In New Residences

Newton was first among Massachiusetts cities for the month of December in the construction of residences, other than apartment buildings. Brookline was first in dwelling construction with $323,500, but this included $247,000 for eight apartment buildings. Newton was second with $216,100 for 26 single residences and 2 two-family houses. Wellesley was third with $132,000; Braintree fourth, $113,000; Worcester fifth, $112,400; Boston sixth, $95,500; Needham, seventh, $74,500.

In general construction Pittsfield was first with $1,630,025; Boston, second, $809,954; Worcester, third, $536,460; Brookline, fourth, $382,700; Newton, fifth, $244,370.

To Go To Camp Next Month

Forty-six young men from New ton will be inducted into military service next month. The quotas will be— District 112, 20; District 113, 14; District 114, 12. It had been planned to induct many more draftees in February, but as housing facilities at the various camps are not sufficiently ready to receive the number of draftees originally planned, a smaller number will be inducted in February, and a much larger number in March. A large percentage of Newton men inducted into service in December and January were in the code of Puritansism.

The philosopher of the present is plant for an idea to develop, there must be a biological need, that it is a tool for a particular need. He claims that thought starts with a smaller number will be inducted in Testrumentalism" and he is the first to make an original contribution to philosophy, and others being paraeric in December and January were ice in December and January were volunteers. Volunteers are few now, so most of those inducted will be drafted.

Will Durant Tells Of America's Own Philosophy

Large Forum Audience Is Well Entertained

Dr. Will Durant, the eminent his Dr. Will Durant, the eminent historian of philosophy, spoke before a large and delighted audience at the Newton Community Forum on "Is There an American Philosophy?" at the Newton High School auditorium last Sunday. He spoke in spite of the fact that he had just been in bed with influenza, which did not affect his good humor or the timbre of his voice.

He divides American philosophy in-

of his voice.

He divides American philosophy into four parts: first, the Religious Age from 1620 to 1780 with Jonathan Edwards as its main thought leader; second, the Transcendental Age, from 1780 to 1860 with Emerson as its philosopher; third, the Commercial Age, from 1860 to 1914 with Will James, and fourth, the Machine Age, from 1914 to 1944 with its main exponent John Dewey. Dr. Durant stated that he was considering American philosophy from three points: its essential character, its reasoned view, and its specific contributions. He also said that he might be wrong, because understanding philosophy is like a drop of water trying to understand the sea.

His talk was concerned with the

His talk was concerned with the enlargement and explanation of these ideas along with many a pointed anecdote. The Religious Era, characterized by high morals and sturdy but narrow religious precepts, was essentially necessary to America at that period of its development. However, when the country had been that period of its development. However, when the country had been more or less settled down, there was a period of what Dr. Durant calls the Transcendental Era in which there was an attack on the theology of the old religion but not its Ethics. This is much the sort of thing that Spinoza, Spencer, and Darwin did. This cultural infection has been brought about by the traveling abroad, to France, of the great men of Colonial days—Jefferson, Gouverneur Morris, Franklin, etc., who learned from the great philosophers, such as Voltaire.

Next came the Commercial Age learned from the great philosophers, such as Voltaire.

Next came the Commercial Age characterized and promoted by the factors of Race Mixture, the Civil War, and the Mexican War. Dr. Durant showed that all the great peoples of the world had been mixtures and that the culture of the time of Emerson had been the product of a mature Anglo-Saxon civilization, but that the Race Mixture had destroyed this culture. There are no writers today that can write with the elegance or the perfection of form of Emerson, and American literature is finding its raucous voice in such men as Hemingway and Mencken. This belligerent capitalism of the nineteenth century was very necessary, then, to build up America, however bad it may be in the twentieth century. The main prophet of this time was Will James of whom Dr. Durant spoke reminiscently. Will James was very popular because of his pleasant personality and pragmatic philosophy. He felt that the truth of an idea were not determined by logic but by its actual operation ("cash value").

Dr. Durant then went on to the Machine Fra our time. This period

Dr. Durant then went on to the Machine Era our time. This period is characterized by urbanization and wealth. Accordingly, immorality varies as the amount of wealth.

varies as the amount of wealth.

Of modern morality, he said that there is the biological, the traditional, and the financial age of marriage. When people, today, marry at thirty, the second greatest urge in man operates against Puritanism. There is a strong move against the code of ethics as well as the Theology of Puritanism.

ises. Dewey's philosophy is called "Instrumentalism" and he is the first to make an original contribution to philosophy, and others being paraphrasers of Calvin, Wordsworth, and Immanuel Kant. On education, Dewey feels that children are taught by doing and "growth is goodness." As to politics, he is inclined towards state socialism. Dr. Durant remarked that, as a solace from the octogenathat, as a solace from the octogena-rian radicalism of Dewey, he liked to get back to the conservative underaduates.

After a question period the meet-ing was closed by Chairman Mather. The speaker on Feb. 2 will be Ed-ward F. Connelly on "What Busi-ness Wants of Government."

Our Federal Constitution

The NEWTON GRAPHIC, in co-operation with the National Constitution Day Committee, and a group of patriotic Newton citizens is sponsoring the free distribution to the several thousand pupils of the public, private and religious schools of Newton above the sixth grades, of an annotated and illustrated copy of the constitution of the United States, entitled "The Key to the Constitution," by Francis Clay Harley, which educators say is a "lawyer's document made clear to boys and girls as the living gospel of the liberties of the people."

On this generation there has pel of the liberties of the people."

On this generation there has been placed a heavy responsibility for the safety of democracy—heavier, probably, than was borne by any other generation that has gone before. No work could be more important today than the community-wide awakening of respect and reverence for that great document under which our republican form of government has maintained for so many years.

The natural enemies of democracy are regimenting their young to turn them into state idolizing machines. We in America must concentrate on teaching all, both the young and their elders, just what the Constitution means to people who cherish liberty.

Newton Guardsmen Now At Cape Cod

The Newton units of the 101st Quartermaster's Regiment departed from the armory at West Newton at 11 a. m. last Saturday for Camp Edwards at Bourne and Falmouth, Cape Cod, where they are scheduled to be in training as part of the U. S. Army. Company D of Lawrence joined the Newton men at the armory and the 149 enlisted men and seven officers headed for the camp, driving 22 trucks, three station wagons and an ambulance. The regiment will be recruited to full strength by the gradual addition of draftees from Fort Devens. Other units of the 26th Division have been arriving at the camp during the past week, and the division, as it was composed in its National Guard strength, should have assembled at Falmouth by Jan. 28.

Turn Down Claims Of Newton Firemen

festor at the Harvard School of Public Health.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night, it was a voited on recommendation of the Claims & Rules Committee to refuse payment on claims of James T.

Clarke and John T. Dooley, two Newton firemen. Both were slightly in jured while working at a fire at Harvard st., Newtonville, the latter part of December. Clarke's claim was $4 for medical attendance, and Dooley's for $2. Chairman Rawson of the Claims Committee explained that claims for payment of medical treatment by city employees are not approved unless the head of a department recommendes such payment. He said the Chief of the Fire Department had not recommended the payment of these two small claims.

Alderman Fahey objected to the action of the Claims Committee in recommending "leave to withdraw" on the two claims. He thought it unfair to refuse to pay such claims because a department head may slip up in recommending them. He asked if the committee had consulted with the department head? Eligible For Appointment To Newton Police Dept

On Tuesday the Civil Service Commission sent to the Newton Police Department the names of three men who were eligible for appointment to the reserve force of the department. The eligibles are John Umina, 120 Pine st., Auburndale; James Mc-Manus, 61 Pond st., Newton; Thomas J. Brady, 16 Washburn st., Newton. Umina was sworn in for duty the past week. Brady, a son-in-law of Chief Hughes, has been on special police work at Chestnut Hill. There are two vacancies to be filled in the regular police force, and most of the members of the reserve force are on duty, substituting for regular patrolmen who are on the annual listing of Newton residents. Favor Day in Six For Newton Police

Newton policemen were informed at roll-call last Saturday by Captain Veduccio, that Mayor Paul Goddard and the special committee of Aldermen appointed to investigate the matter of granting members of the Newton police department a day off in each six, had announced that they are in favor of this proposal. Newton policemen now get one day off in eight, and for years have been endeavoring to get the day off in six. The latter plan is in operation in a number of cities in this State.

The committee representing the policemen, which has conferred in the past with Ex-Mayor Childs and with Mayor Goddard, contended that the day off in six schedule could be placed in operation without adding more men to the force. Chief Hughes states that six additional policemen will be needed to make the change, without reducing the efficiency of the department.

Chope Appointed To Board of Health

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night a communication was received from Mayor Goddard announcing the appointment of Dr. Harold D. Chope as a member of the Newton Board of Health, to succeed the late Dr. Edward Mellus, who died on December 7. Dr. Chope was for several years Health Officer of Newton, and resigned on November 30, 1940 after he had accepted the position of Associate Professor at the Harvard School of Public Health.

The reappointment of Albert H.

The reappointment of Albert H. McAuslan as a member of the Board of Assessors, was unanimously confirmed by the Aldermen at the Monday meeting.

Rawson of the Claims Committee explained that the rear housing of the car was considerably damaged when it hit a large stone on Washington Park, Newtonville. The stone was dislodged from the side of the street by a snowplow on a truck. Rawson said the driver of the truck had stated he did not know the plowhad knocked the stone onto the street, and the Welch automobile came along shortly afterward.

The petition of Kathleen Grant for a permit to install a 250 gallon gasoline tank at 467 California st., in a residence zone, was rejected. Alderman Fahey of the Licenses Committee reported that there had been opposition from the abuttors and neighbors, who believed an express business would be conducted there. The Chief of the Fire Department also refused to approve the installation of the tank.

First Fatal Auto Accident of Year Occurred Jan. 3rd

The first fatal automobile accident in Newton in 1941 occurred on January 3rd, according to a report received from Medical Examiner Gallagher at City Hall on January 17. The report stated that Mrs. June Armstrong of 874 Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre died on January 16 of a cerebral embolism caused by a crushed chest and fractured ribs. The accident occurred about 8 a. m. on January 3 when a caroperated by Mrs. Armstrong skidded on Centre st., near Colby st., Newton and crashed into a stone wall. The Traffic Bureau of the Newton police received information of the accident about an hour after it occurred. Inspectors from the Bureau went to the scene, but the car had been towed away. Inspector Burke got in touch with George Armstrong, owner of the car, and was told that Mrs. Armstrong would make a report of the accident within a few days. At that time it was not known that she had been so seriously injured. When the police learned of the death of Mrs. Armstrong as a result of the accident, Inspector Burke started an investigation.

Mrs. Armstrong was born in Wichita, Kansas 48 years ago. Her funeral was held on Sunday.

Wrecked Borrowed Car; Fined $50

John J. Flaherty, 21, of 19 Austin st., Newtonville, was fined $50 by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court on Thursday for using an automobile without authority. On a similar charge, Norman Cronin, 21, of 33 Henshaw st., West Newton, was fined $25.

On the night of January 13, Flaherty, who was employed by Mrs. Myra Bowen of Wickham rd., West Newton, took her car without authority. He met Cronin and the pair took a long ride in the car. On Austin st., West Newton, with Cronin driving, the car skidded and hit a pole. Flaherty then operated the car and it hit another pole on Chestnut st. The car was damaged to the extent that it cost $300 for repairs.

Newtonville Youth One of Bowdoin College Speakers

Among the six members of the senior class at Bowdoin College chosen to compete for the annual Class of 1868 Prize in Public Speaking was Charles Henry Mergendahl, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mergendahl of Newtonville. The prize, consisting of the annual income of $1081 is awarded to the member of the senior class at Bowdoin College delivering the best original oration. The contest will be held Thursday, Feb. 27. Mr. Mergendahl has been active in all the literary and dramatic activities of the college, including the writing of the 1939 house party play, "The Twig." He is a member of the Delta Upsilon fraternity.

Alderman Walker, chairman of the special committee which investigated the matter of establishing the two-platoon system, said that the report of that committee called for 15 additional privates, 8 lieutenants and 1 deputy chief. Chief Randlett had asked for 18 more privates to give proper strength to companies, when men would be off for one reason or another, and he said the department can get along at the present time without the additional deputy chief. Mr. Walker said that under the number of men added, each engine company will have one officer and three men on duty on each platoon, and each ladder company—one officer and five men, and the city will receive excellent protection.

Alderman Hoffman said that the Aldermen had a mandate from the majority of the people of Newton to establish the two-platoon system in the fire department, so the appropriation would have to be made for the additional firemen. He doubted the wisdom, however, of the establishment of the two-platoon system now when we are drafting men between the ages of 21 and 35 for military service, and when the relief budget is down to its 1929 level. tween the ages of 21 and 35 for military service, and when the relief budget is down to its 1929 level. Hoffman said that he hopes the money so appropriated will result in greater physical efforts on the part of the firemen than in the past. He implied that the firemen could perform repairs at the fire stations, although such work by them might be opposed by labor unions. He also suggested that Newton firemen become trained in national defense preparation as are the Boston firemen. The vote in favor of the appropriation was unanimous.

The Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night, on recommendation of Mayor Goddard, appropriated $48,688.88 to provide for the establishment of the two-platoon system in the Newton Fire Department. This amount will meet the salaries to be paid 18 new privates in the department from Feb. 2 to the end of the year, and advances in salaries to 8 privates who will be promoted to the rank of lieutenant. Aldermen McKay, chairman of the Finance Committee, explained that the appropriation was about $142 less than the amount specified on the docket, because the salaries will be for one day less than originally estimated. He said that the sadditional privates and 8 lieutenants will be $56,168.75 annually, when the new men reach the full salary paid under the step-rate increases.

NEW RESPONSIBILITIES

This week some two score additional municipal employees were added to the fire department to institute the two-platoon system adopted by the voters last fall. The group constitutes the largest number of men added at one time to the permanent rolls of any city department in many years. Those selected have passed the examination given them in competition with others and are the best of those seeking this employment. We know that they will make every effort to render the service for which they have been chosen. They have taken on the new responsibilities of guardbeen chosen. They have taken on the new responsibilities of guarding and protecting life and property in the Garden City. Our congratulations to them and to the citizens of Newton with the wish that they will maintain and even raise the high standards of our existing fire department.

THE LIFE OF DEMOCRACY

This week saw the beginning of a period in American history which is fraught with great significance. It marked the inauguration of a President of these United States for a third term. A period of four years in which the ship of state will sail through stormy waters like unto none ever before experienced. The democratic way of life is threatened by forces from without. That democracy will survive. But it will survive only through a continuation of those democratic traditions and foundations upon which this nation was builded through three centuries. And the primary element in the founding of this nation was a unified desire of a small band of people to worship God with freedom, and liberty for all. We hear a great deal these days about freedom and liberty, but too many of us have minimized, or lost sight of the real purpose and full meaning of life. Our politics, our religious beliefs, our differences of opinion on current matters are of vital importance. In our democracy the view of the individual, which goes to make up the opinion of the majority, is the force which will always breathe life into democracy. But for that life which will bring the utmost we must go deeper. Self-preservation will come only with self-discipline, humility and a clear perception of our duty to God, country and fellowmen.

Unnecessary blowing of automobile horns at late night or early morning hours by motorists who have no consideration for people within hearing distance who are asleep, or for sick persons nearby, is one of the nuisances of modern life in cities and towns. People who reside on streets where there is even a moderate amount of automobile traffic can testify as to the blowing of automobile horns at midnight or after.

In our Paragraphs last Friday we criticised Wendell Willkie. We expected repercussions from that criticism—and we got them. Some were favorable, and others were not. As soon as I entered the Aldermanic Chamber at City Hall last Monday night, Alderman Albert Everts headed for me, referred to the crack I night, Alderman Albert Everts headed for me, referred to the crack I had taken at Mr. Willkie, and asked—"Don't you believe in an opposition party?" I assured Mr. Everts that I do believe in an opposition party, but Mr. Willkie isn't opposing. He is agreeing; the Republican opposition is being furnished by Herbert Hoover, Alfred Landon, Senators Taft, Vandenburg and Johnson, Hanford MacNider and numerous others. I stated that my criticism of Mr. Willkie was induced mostly by his announcement—that he would go to England to obtain first-hand information of conditions over there, and that I believed such action was unnecessary in view of the fact that President Roosevelt has sent Harry Hopkins, Colonel Donovan and others overseas as his special observers and representatives.

representatives.

Alderman Everts then said—"You don't believe in Willkie's foreign policies. Why don't you say so." Next came Alderman Robert Whidden who came Alderman Robert Whidden who had cut the paragraph referring to Wilkie out of his copy of The GRAPHIC, and who handed it to me with the comment that Wilkie represented millions of intelligent people. We told Mr. Whidden that we agreed with him on that contention, but that Mr. Wilkie's present attitude is quite different in some respects from that he manifested in the speeches he made during the campaign, including his speech of acceptance, and that millions who voted for him do not agree with his changed viewpoints.

Later we received a letter from a West Newton lady. In it she wrote—"In fairness to Mr. Willkie, I would remind you,—or perhaps you never knew, that thousands of those who voted for him, wrote to him after the election, and asked him to stand by them, to watch all governmental action and help us all. This he is organization which offers music opportunities of a high grade at minimum rates, and has become well known through the past thirty years for the seriousness of its work, its excellent courses, and its high standards. It is a school for all—the untalented child who needs music for avocation, as well as the talented one who may want to make music a profession.

Besides the individual, instrumental or voice lessons, many opportunities are offered for group activity in all departments, and students of the school are urged to avail themselves of as many of these outlets for music expression as possible. The tit might be well to give Mr. Willkie his rightful place as a true American."

Our criticism of Mr. Willkie might have been narrow and small, but it does not follow that because a newspaper is big, it is necessarily right, or because a newspaper is small, it wrong in differing from the viewpoints of the paper that is big financially and in influence. According to democracy the little fellow has a right to express his views as well as the big fellow.

Mr. Roland Darling, director and founder of the Forty Plus Club and the Job Hunters Club, was the speaker for the Friday morning assembly. He was entertained at lunch by members of the Merchandising Department and spoke again to students of that department in the afternoon. The New York Lasell Club held its annual luncheon and meeting at the election. Other of our Republican friends can't reconcile Mr. Willkie's present attitude with the arguments and some and meeting at the repeatedly offered a few months ago while he was a candidate for President. His admirers assert that

It is interesting to observe how many persons believe that this country is not at war, and will not become engaged in the war, and on the other hand, how many persons believe this country is now actually (if not officially) involved in the war to such a degree that it must become totally engaged. Personally, we can't visualize the probability of young men from this country being sent on any expeditionary force to Europe. Where in Europe would an American Expeditionary Force land, and what weapons will they have to fight with for the next 2 or 3 years? The for the next 2 or 3 years? The present war will be decided, insofar as Europe is concerned, this year unless we are quite mistaken.

Large Increase In Newton Court Cases

Business at the Newton District Court in 1940 showed an increase in criminal sessions of nearly 60 per cent over that of 1939, largely due to increased activities of Newton police against violators of automobile laws. In 1939 the number of cases tried was 2155, and in 1940 it was 3412. The number of cases for alleged violations of automobile and traffic laws in 1939 was 951, and in 1940 it was 2168. In 1939 dangerous driving cases totalled 59, and 87 in 1940. In 1940 there were 47 motorists charged with drunken driving; a decrease of 5 from 1939. In 1940, 673 persons were charged with drunkenness, as compared with 701 in 1939. In 1940 66 were charged with breaking and entering, and 98 with larceny. In 1939 the totals were 37 and 67, respectively.

The speaker of the day, introduced permitted to bring friends to see this program.

The speaker of the day, introduced by George Van Bus Kirk, chairman of the program committee, was Mr. Thomas McNamara of Lexington, a noted amateur radio operator. In his interesting address Mr. McNamara described the thrills, which the "hams," as they are called, receive when they talk with people on the West Coast, at the South Pole, or in foreign countries. He described some of the amateur operators as being crippled and often blind, and told how in National emergencies they are invaluable in getgencies they are invaluable in get-ting messages through. Many ama-teur operators went to France from America in the last world war and served in transmitting messages at the front.

Mr. McNamara said that amateur Mr. McNamara said that amateur radio operators of America lead the world both in efficiency and numbers. There are more than 50,000 of them. In the event of a National emergency each operator has pledged himself and his equipment entirely to the government service.

Automobile Accidents

An automobile driven by John Forte, 16, of 203 Windsor rd., Waban hit a tree on Aspen dve., Auburndale at 3 o'clock Sunday morning. The driver received cuts on his chin and nose. The second book review was given by Mrs. Arthur Freeman and was on T. R. Ybarra's book "America Faces South." The author was quoted as a foreign correspondent whose father was a Venezuelan and his mother a native of Boston. His point of view seemed entirely unbiased.

After showing the many points of difference among the 20 republics which comprise South America, even in the several languages spoken there, he said that the country could never be approached as an entity. He felt Brazil was particularly friendly to us partly through trade and partly from fear of aggression by European countries.

Chile also was not unfavorable to the United States, but Argentine had been prejudiced by Germany more than the others. There particularly a new Monroe Doctrine would be needed for amity,—not a doctrine of domination, but a 50-50 partnership. Selections from several outstanding South American poets, read by Mrs. Guy M. Winslow came next.

Hospital on Monday of this week, swas addressed by Mr. Clifford Walker, the Executive Committee member of that institution.

Dr. Edward Leonard was in charge of the meeting and introduced Miss Allen, administrator of the hospital, who responded with an invitation for a 1942 visit by the local club. There were several visiting Rotarians from nearby clubs in addition to eminent medical visitors, among whom was Dr. Franklin Wood, Director of the McLean Hospital and President of the Boston Rotary Club.

Mr. Walker, the speaker of the evening, is a well-known member of the legal profession in Boston and a resident of Waban.

In addition to his responsibilities as an Executive Committee member, he is also Chairman of the School of Nursing Committee. The speaker selected three functions of a hospital to illustrate the organization and personnel of the Newton Hospital.

The third function of a hospital, according to Mr. Walker, is the maintenance of a school of nursing. This school makes it possible for young women to qualify as able assistants to the medical men. Intensive study and training is the lot of the student nurse in the rapidly changing medical world. It is extremely essential that these workers be up to date, and alert, and the completion of the required course of tudy gives to the community a group which is available for public needs:

Mr. Walker pointed out that the hospital was studying various ways and means to improve itself from a public relations aspect. The governing boards of the hospital believe that any hospital is only as good as the reactions of ex-patients and their friends or relatives.

Newton Tracksters Defeat Brookline

By capturing seven of nine first places against Brookline in a dual meet this week the Newton track team returned to the victory path. The orange and black speedsters turned in a 49 to 28 win over the Wealthy Towners, winning all first places except the dash and the relay. In compiling Newton's total Walsh captured the shotput, Hale the broad jump and Capt. Eliot Mover the high jump on Wednesday for fifteen Newton points with second and third places in each event going to Brookline athletes. The field events were contested on Tuesday with the track events being held on Thursday at the Brookline oval.

on Thursday at the Brookline oval.

Johnson won the dash for the Wealthy Towners over Ray Hunting but the Newton sprinter came back to win the 300 in the fast time of 34.8 sec. for the Brookline boards. Hyde of Newton took third in the dash and Thompson and Baldwin of the orange and black helped Hunting make it a clean sweep in the 300. Rangnow won the 600 with an additional Newton point being chalked up by Foster's third. Larkin of Brookline was second.

Robinson and Van Wart made it

Robinson and Van Wart made it one and three in the 1000 for six more Newton points while three New-ton hurdlers swept the barrier event. This trio was Henderson, Coburn and

The Wealthy Towners took the relay with a quartet comprised of Barstone, Kokoff, Johnson and Siegold. The Newton track team participates in the Northeastern University Interscholastic meet at the Boston Garden tomorrow aftermoon. The locals for several years dominated this meet with a galaxy of stars but with Mechanics Arts High and Rindge Tech displaying potential strength and the locals considerably below the peak performances of a few years ago the orange and black will not figure as a contender for the meet title but may upset the ambitions and hopes of others. The Wealthy Towners took the re-Opening another indoor track season last week Friday the Newton High School track team lost its sec-ond dual meet in seven years with Malden High tracksters turning the trick 43 to 34. In 1940 the orange and black lost at Lowell and in 1938 since Lynn Classical turned the trick in 1934.

Annually Coach Don Enoch develops numerous youngsters who take their place in the schoolboy track world. Prospects for the season ahead are none too bright although before the curtain falls early in March there may be several runners and field event men who will have made a place for themselves in the schoolboy track world.

Against Malden the orange and black won but four first places with Ray Hunting taking the 35-yard dash, Walsh the shotput, Hale and Walsh tying in the board jump, and Captain Mover and Harris tying in the high jump. Hunting also took third in the 300-yard run to show up as the outstanding Newton runner. Robinson of Newton took a second in the 1000 yard run, Ragnow a second in the 600, and Coburn a third in the hurdles, for the remainder of Newton's points.

Basketball Five Loses Two Games

Losing two of its three games in the past week the Newton High basketball team has dropped to fourth place in the Suburban league standing. The two Newton losses were by three point margins, 30-33 to Waltham last Friday, and 26-29 to Brookline on Tuesday. Both games were on alien courts. Yesterday the Newtonites went to the Rindge Tech gym and met Cambridge Latin High for the second time this season and returned to the victory path in a 34 to 22 affair.

Last Friday evening at Waltham the Watch City-Garden City contest was a thriller with Waltham leading all the way but with Newton threatening continually to close the gap. Waltham outscored Newton in the first and third periods, the second period was a 4-all tie and Newton took an 11 to 9 advantage in the final session. Larry Doyle with 12 points and George Norton with 5

Newton took an 11 to 9 advantage in the final session. Larry Doyle with 12 points and George Norton with 5 were the Waltham individual performers which offset Bob Beatty's 11 point tally with Phil Teschner chalking up 5 more points. Newton employed a zone defence to thwart a scoring rampage by the Watch City lads but Waltham countered with some excellent playmaking to capitalize on numerous opportunities while the Newton lads were missing several easy shots which means the difference in the ball game.

At Brookline on Tuesday again Newton kept in the ball game all the way but a 7 to 4 point margin from the foul line was just enough to give Brookline a three-point edge.
Doherty, Newton forward, was the St. Patrick's individual performer with nine points followed by Gentile and Norcross with 5 each. Argus, Brookline centre, was Brookline's leading scorer with 7 digits, followed by Meehan with 6.

Yesterday in toppling the Cantabs for the second time the Newton points were quite evenly divided with Gentile caging 7, Doherty and Teschner 6 each, and Flagg 5.

Hockey Team Faces Two Severe Tests

The Newton High School hockey team resumes its efforts to keep in the running for the Greater Boston Interscholastic League hockey title playing two games this afternoon and tomorrow. In this afternoon's affair Newton will meet Arlington and although favored to win must stop one of the league's outstanding stars in Capt. Arthur Blanchard of the Spy Ponders. Coach Evan Johnson of Newton may put Joe Beatty back on the first line to team with Phil Fessenden and Jim Corcoran although the loss of Guy Monroe at defence may necessitate Beatty's dropping back into his former position. Charlie French and Dick Gleason will probably be the mer position. Charlie French and Dick Gleason will probably be the starting points if Beatty is on the forward line.

If Newton gets by Arlington successfully at the Garden games today the real and most vital test will come tomorrow when the orange and black opposes Melrose. In their previous meeting Melrose was a 4 to 1 victor and since has conquered 1 victor and since has conquered all other league opposition to hold a two-game lead. Newton is regarded as the one team which has a chance to keep Melrose within reach of other teams. An Arlington victory will put Newton in a tie with Rindge for second place and an additional win over Melrose will put them right on the leaders' heels. It is a case of do or die in this weekend's contests for Newton and the locals are ready to go all out. locals are ready to go all out.

old F. Young, Treasurer.

Secretary Rupert Thompson made a lengthy report of the work of the Chamber during the past year. He said the Chamber had co-operated with postal officials in planning to change the principal postoffice in the city from Newton Centre to Newtonville; and had taken steps to have a bill filed in the Legislature this year which will aim to divert Route 128 from thickly settled parts of Newton, including Newton Highlands and Newtonville business sections, to the proposed extension of the circumferential highway, which will carry this heavily traveled State highway around the outskirts of the city.

Mr. Thompson told of the work around the outskirts of the city.

Mr. Thompson told of the work
he had done in co-operating with
Mr. Jones of the Taxpayers' Association and Clarence McDavitt in studying the unemployment situation in Newton and in endeavoring to find employment for those on the welfare rolls, work for girls graduating from the high school, and extending the scope of the Trade and Vocational Schools in preparing youths and young men in learning trades which would enable them to obtain employment.

Hall, Church of the Messiah, Auburndale on Jan. 18th.

In this fantasy, the shop opened by a fairy dancing around the talking, singing, dancing, clown, Chinese, French, sailor and cuddle dolls when an argument starts as to the most popular doll, but all are turned back to dolls again by the Fairy.

The Shop was then opened by the manager, Mrs. Edwin L. Corthell and her assistant, Miss Ruth Walters, receiving mail, telephone and customers' orders. The dolls were brought in and unpacked by Robert Moore and Elsworth Hagman the porters. The dolls were modern, Dresden, talking doll, baby, sailor, Mexican, Shirley Temple, nun, bride and Russian Dancing doll. The climax to the shop was the request for a Mammy doll, a white doll which had to be blacked and dressed to fill the order. At this point all dolls were brought on including a Red Cross nurse, soldier, sailor, Uncle Sam and a Boy Scout carrying the flag, all sang a patriotic air. The cast was accompanied by Mrs. George Rivers at the piano.

WILLIAM HENRY F. TERRIO

Lieutenant William H. F. Terrio, U. S. N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wil-liam H. Terrio of 33 Thurston rd., Newton Upper Falls, died suddenly of heart failure at his home in Al-hambra, Los Angeles, Cal., on Jan-

The Reverend Guy Wilbur Miner, for the past six years rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Amesbury, and after forty-two years of active ministry in the Diocese of Massachusetts, died early on Tuesday, January 21st, at his residence in Franklin. He had been in poor health for several months.

In accordance with his request a requiem celebration of the Holy Communion was held at St. John's Church, Franklin at 10 a. m. on Thursday, January 23rd. The rector, Reverend Houghton Fosbroke officiated. In the afternoon at 2 p. m. on Thursday at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, Boston, Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill, D.D., conducted a burial service for the clergy and those friends who wished to attend.

He was born in 1867 in North Adams, the eldest son of Anson Dwight Miner and Ella Wilbur Miner. He graduated from Trinity College, Hartford in 1890 and the General Theological Seminary, New York in 1893. He was ordained deacon in the Cathedral of Our Merciful Saviour, Faribault, Minnesota in 1894 by Bishop Mahlon N. Gilbert, and priest in 1893 by Bishop Elisha Thomas in Grace Cathedral, Topeka, Kansas. After teaching for one year in Shattuck Military School at Faribault and four years as canon missioner at the Topeka cathedral, he came East to act as diocesan missionary in charge of Franklin, Medway, Millis, Medfield and Wrentham, in which capacity he served for twenty-four years. During that period he built churches in Medfield, Millis and Franklin and a parish house in Medway. He was called to the rectorship of St. Mary's Church, Newton Lower Falls in 1922 where he remained until his retirement in 1934. After a few months, however, he returned to active service as rector of St. James' Church, Amesbury where he achieved most excellent results until his final illness. excellent results until his final ill-

Want New Department at Newton High School to Get Jobs For Graduates

Principal Green Makes Report Showing Great Need for Proposed New Activity

Supt. Warren recommended to the School Committee that a Placement Department be established at Newton High School to assist students and graduates in obtaining employment. This department would have a director and a full time secretary, and the annual expense was estimated at $3200. Carl Birmingham, now a teacher in the commercial division at the High School, would be made director, and another teacher appointed to succeed him at a salary of about $2000. The secretary of the Placement Bureau would receive $780 per year; office expenses are estimated at $120; travel expenses, $200.

Relative to the Placement Department, Supt. Warren said that Newton would be the first place to establish this activity, if his recommendation will be accepted. He submitted a report from Principal Green of the High School in reference to the proposed department.

Mr. Green's report stated in part—
"Today the challenge to our American way of life requires us to find ways and means of meeting that challenge by helping every boy and girl in our schools to feel economically secure. This can be accomplished best by helping them find gainful employment in part-time and full-time jobs, for our schools are no longer recognized agencies for educational guidance and training only, but for job placement and follow-up as well in the job-area served by the school.

"School placement means to a great extent assuming the responsibility for placement of all jobseeking students whose needs are not being met by other agencies. It is part, and a great part, of the Defense of our American Democracy and Democratic Stability.

and Democratic Stability.

"Placement service in the Newton High School has been given for many years as a voluntary service by teachers. In 1907 every member of a senior shorthand class was employed before July 1 following graduation. In 1917 fifty-five graduates were placed in positions during April and May of their senior year. Seniors in Business and Office Training Curricula are granted privilege of taking positions in the business world from April 1 on with the permission of the school. Most of these positions were secured by the school, and candidates placed according to their qualifications. Within the last three years this service was enlarged to include the pupils of the Academic V Curriculum, a terminal curriculum. This is known as our Approved Work program.

Progress of Work

"Active in this work over the years have been Miss Wiley (retired), Miss Church, Miss Twiss, Mr. Newcomb, Mr. Birmingham, and Mr. Maxim through whose untiring efforts this service was developed. During the past five years Mrs. Newcomb, Mr. Birmingham, and Mr. Maxim have given an increasing amount of their afternoon, evening, and week-end hours to the employment interests of our pupils. Mr. Birmingham has been given an extra period (4 hours per week) from teaching duties to enlarge this service—to find employment needs to follow up graduates to a limited extent, to contact employers when possible, to interview pupils in school about jobs, to groom pupils for conferences, and to send questionnaires to graduates as job follow-up. Thousands of telephone calls have been made, and hundreds (Continued on page 8) (Continued on page 8)

Community Chest Drive Has One Week to Go

With less than a week left in the great push to reach the Newton Community Chest goal, Chairman William V. M. Fawcett today issued in appeal to all Chest workers in the 14 villages to speed up their work. In another statement he appealed to all people in Newton to give more generously this year for the "great work of the 14 Chest agencies in Newton and of the 200 hospitals, health and social agencies in Greater Boston."

pitals, health and social agencies in Greater Boston."
"In one short week," Mr. Fawcett said, "we have seen outstanding examples of what our Fund agencies to for the people of our community. We have seen family service agencies rush to the aid of those families left without husbands and fathers after the terrible disaster to the O'Hara fishing schooner. We have seen our own district nurses out on the job early the morning after the snow storm, trudging through drifts, seeing to it that those who are sick and discouraged have the are they need. We have seen our Boy Scouts eager and willing to serve their community and their neighbors, helping out those who were stranded, protecting their community by clearing out around fire hydrants.

Car Killed One Boy, Injured Another; Driver Not Guilty

In the Newton court yesterday John D. DeRosier, 37, of 87 Freeman st., Auburndale was found not guilty by Judge Donald Mayberry on charges of manslaughter, driving a car so as to endanger the lives of the public, and driving while under the influence of liquor. He was found guilty of driving without a license and registration, and these charges were placed on file. On December 28 at 5 p. m. a car driven by DeRosier hit and fatally injured Sarkis Avedisian, 15, of 286 Melrose st., Auburndale, and critically injured John Rooney, 13, of 305 Auburn st., Auburndale, as the two boys were crossing Lexington st. at Freeman st. in that section.

The Avedisian boy received a fractive of beth

st. in that section.

The Avedisian boy received a fractured skull, fractures of both legs, and other injuries. He died the next morning at Newton Hospital. The Rooney boy received fractures of both legs. The force of the impact damaged both fenders and the hood on the automobile, broke a headlight and bent the number plate. DeRosier took the Rooney boy to the hospital in his car and the Avedisian boy was taken there by another autoist. Police questioned DeRosier at the hospital and placed him under arrest. According to the police he admitted that he had drank a couple of glasses of beer.

In court yesterday the police pre-

In court yesterday the police presented written testimony of information which had been given by Robert LaVert, 16, of 87 Freeman st, and which the police assert was given voluntarily shortly after the accident. According to this testimony, young LaVert told the police that he was walking South on Freeman st, just before the accident occurred, and he saw the car approaching along Lexington st, at a speed of 50 miles an hour. He said that he saw the two boys about in the middle of the street, knew they would be hit, covered his ears and turned his head. Under questioning by De Under questioning by De Rosier's attorney in court yester-day, young LaVert changed his testi-

Newton Woman to Serve With Red Cross In London

Miss Charlotte Raymond of 11 Kimball Terrace, Newtonville, for the past seven years community nutritionist in Newton, will leave shortly to serve in this profession in London. She will be with the Harvard School of Public Health, Red Cross Unit. This is the unit with which Dr. Hauser and Dr. John Gordon are working.

Miss Raymond is a native of Fair Haven, Vermont, and graduated from Middlebury College in 1926, She later took a course at Peter Bent Brigham Hospital and then went to Truesdale Hospital, Fall River, as as-sistant dietitian. Subsequently she served at the Boston Dispensary and then taught dietatherapy at Faulkner served at the Boston Dispensary and then taught dietotherapy at Faulkner Hospital. In 1933 she came to Newton as a community nutritionist under the auspices of the Newton Chapter of the Red Cross. After three years this work was taken over by agencies of the Newton Community Council.

County Hospital Tax $5774 Less

The assessment on the City of Newton for 1941 as its share of the cost of maintaining the Middlesex County T. B. Hospital at Waltham is $39.515.87. The assessment for 1940 was $45.289.41, or $5774 more. In addition, Newton must pay a per diem cost for all patients from this ecity who are treated at the sanatorium. A couple of years ago as special committee of Newton Aldermen investigated the method used in assessing the various cities and towns of Middlesex County for the maintenance of this hospital. They found that some cities and towns (including Newton) were being highly assessed, and the other units of the county were receiving the benefit of the large sessed, and the other units of the county were receiving the benefit of the large sessed, and the other units of the county were receiving the benefit of the large sessed. sessed, and the other units of the county were receiving the benefit of quite low assessments. The Newton Aldermen demanded a drastic change in the financing of the hospital to bring about more equitable assessments, but the County Commissioners have not acceded to a great degree in meeting these demands.

Fire at Boston College Causes $10,000 Damage

St. Mary's Hall, the first and most attractive building to be erected at the Boston College group at Chestnut Hill, was the scene of a fire which started about 11 o'clock on Wednesday morping. Two men shoveling snow observed smoke issuing from a window on the fourth floor of the building, and notified the telephone operator there. The operator phoned to Newton fire alarm headquarters and Engines 9 and 3 were sent to the scene. When Chief Randlett arrived, he ordered a second alarm. This brought most of the Newton fire trucks, and in addition an engine and aerial ladder came from Brookline, and also apparatus from Brighton.

The fire started in a bedroom and apparently started in a waste basket. It spread to adjoining rooms and worked up into a gable room on the fifth floor. Scholastics who were in rooms on the fourth floor, marking examination papers, used

Newton Man Killed As Train Hits Car

George Flanagan. 27, of 1725 Commonwealth ave., West Newton, was fatally injured last Saturday morning at 1:58 when the automobile he was driving went through the gate at the Moody st. railroad crossing in Waltham and was hit by a milk train locomotive. The automobile was carried along by the locomotive a couple of hundred yards before it was thrown to one side. Flanagan received a fractured skull, fractured leg and lacerated brain. He was taken to Waltham Hospital and died there about a half hour later. Flanagan had been employed at the Hathaway Bakery in Waltham and had ended his work for the night shortly before the accident. It is supposed that snow on the windshield of his car prevented him noticing that the gates at the crossing were down.

Snowstorm Costs City $45,000

The snowstorm which started late last Friday afternoon resulted in about 15 inches of flakes ialling in this city. Street Department equipment and many hired trucks were in operation on the highways Friday night. There were 35 city-owned trucks and six tractors, plus 45 hired trucks. All the 300 employees of the Street Department and Forestry Department were at work Friday night and early Saturday morning. On Saturday morning 100 extra men were put to work, and on Saturday afternoon another hundred men were hired. These were kept at work until Monday, at midnight, when most of them were discharged. Three snowloaders were placed in operation on Saturday morning. The 60 horses which the Street Department hired for the winter months were at work hauling sidewalk plows early Saturday morning.

High School Drama Club Play Feb. 7-8

"Nathan Hale," a stirring historical play by Clyde Fitch, will be presented by the Newton High School Drama Club on Friday afternoon, Feb. 7, and on Saturday evening, Feb. 8, in the High School auditorium. The play is directed by Miss Louise Wetherbee.

Louise Wetherbee.

Deeply loved by every American is the treasured page of history that comes to life in "Nathan Hale." Revival for the third time in Newton High annuals was determined by the timeliness of the theme. The courage of Nathan Hale, his high sense of honor, his ideal of "a land of the free," where the individual is respected and given every chance to develop through education and self-governthrough education and self-govern-ment is an example of cherished patriotism.

Dramatic action, thrilling episodes against a faithfully portrayed background of history, and salty Yankee humor crowd every minute with excitement for the cast and the spectators. Charles Brown has the stellar role, and Phyllis Winterbottom is equally convincing as Hale's lovely sweetheart. Robert Warshaw plays the handsome Tory who betrayed the hero to the coarse and brutal Cunningham, done with swagtrayed the hero to the coarse and brutal Cunningham, done with swaggering insolence by Lindsay Wyman. Other leading characters are portrayed by Lane Kutz, Scott Doten, Joan McGrath, Karyl Kern and James Horn.

In the Drama Club Workshop and Stage Crew, in the art classes, in the sewing classes—everywhere at Newton High School—are interest and co-operation in making this play a great tribute to Americanism. Performances for the public are on Frisomen.

Two-Platoon Will Not Make 1941 Budget Higher

Mayor Goddard has stated that he does not expect the budget for 1941 to exceed to any extent that of 1940, and that the tax rate for this year will not be higher than that of last year. Many had believed that the establishment of the two-platoon system in the Fire Department, necessitating an appropriation of about $48,000, would result in a higher tax rate, because of the big increase in the budget of that department. It is believed by the Mayor, however, that savings in other departments will offset the added cost of the Fire Department. There is a considerable sum which has been turned back to the City Treasury by various departments from their budget appropriations for 1940. This will total about $178,000.

The Welfare Department had about $35,000 unexpended. This was largely the result of the big increase in employment caused by the National Defense Program. An unexpended balance of about $29,000 from the Soldiers' Relief Department can be attributed to the same cause, plus more economical conduct ment can be attributed to the same cause, plus more economical conduct of this department. The School Department saved $22,000 from its budget, largely in salaries due to a reduction in the number of teachers. About $25,000 was returned from the appropriation for WPA administrative expenses, and $10,000 from the Street Department.

WHAT BUSINESS WANTS OF GOVERNMENT

The topic for the Newton Community Forum on Sunday will be "What Business Wants of Government." It should prove an interesting and thought-provoking session. With conditions as they are today in a world of chaos, there is no question that both business and government must co-operate. Government needs the co-operation and backing of industry in the preparations for adequate defense. It needs the co-operation of all business in the solutior of economic changes which are taking place to the end that we may have a better and happier America for all.

Business needs the co-operation of government in the control and supervision of such activities that in times past have been used for selfish purposes and to the detriment of the less fortunate. Business needs the understanding of government to the end that it may not be stifled and burdened to the point where the goose that lays the golden egg is killed. Economic changes have taken place and more are in the offing. Together business and governtes and more are in the offing. Together business and governtes week Eoston newspapers content of any appreciable amount. Years ago a State law was enacted which permits cities and towns to carry liability insurance on motor vehicles they own, and a number of municipalities have since carried such insurance. Newton has refused to so. It is not improbable that if automobiles owned by the Aldermen or the Cost of the care (or parsimony) exercised by the Board of Aldermen in paying claims for damages, we refer to a claim acted on at the last meeting of that body. It was from the owner of a house in Newtonville where a copper, hot-was to be sint off. The Aldermen voted to play the owner of the ruined boiler only $13 because the boiler was 15 years old, and the life of a copper-hot-water boiler is allegedly 20 years. We know of such boilers that are only $13 because the boiler was 15 years old, and the life of a copper-hot-water boiler is allegedly 20 yea

One of the most interesting controversies one could imagine was started this week when movie fans, music lovers, and artists found their respective worlds invaded and merged by worlds invaded and merged by in the production of "Fantasia." society. In his application Governor Saltonstall stated that he is a direct descendant (eighth generation) of Margery Browne who was born in Cork, Ireland, in 1714; and John Sullivan, who was born in Limerick. Ireland, in 1690. After their marriage they migrated to this country and settled in Berwick, Maine. Marcines a concert, more than a work of ment, in another it is not. As an individual we have our own movie likes and dislikes. We profess to have no sense of true appreciation of classical music, and our artistic response is entirely personal. We would not attempt to impose our impressions of this new and revolutionary method of entertainment which is best described by the phrase "seeing music and hearing pictures" upon our readers. It is more than a movie, more than a concert, more than a work of art. In one sense it is entertainment, in another it is not. First impressions are baffling, yet reflections and reminiscence bring clearer realization that some of it is unbelievably enchanting, charming, and full of beauty, while other parts are clashing and discordant. Seeing music and hearing pictures is a new experience-it is revolutionary. Most certainly a new advance has been made. We cannot say it is something no one should miss seeing for it will impress some, disappoint others, and create entirely different and opposite reactions to persons of varied temperament. For it is well-named "Fantasia"-movies, music and art, combined to a considerable degree of success in a realm of fantasy and imagination.

Community Poster At W Newton Savings Bank Gets Attention

During the Greater Boston Community Fund Drive the public and private schools of Newton were called upon to arrange and suitably decorate the banks throughout the city. The West Newton Savings Bank was assigned to the Levi F. Warren Junior High School. Before planning the display, the class of the inith grade elective art students visited the banks and looked over the space to be decorated.

Last week Boston newspapers contained the interesting information that Governor Leverett Saltonstall that Governor Leverett Sattonstain had applied for membership in the Charitable Irish Society of Boston. One has to have had Irish ancestors to be eligible for membership in this society. In his application Governor Saltonstall stated that he is a direct

Through the courtesy of Mr. Gammons, President and Mr. Champlin, Treasurer, the class was shown through the bank's vaults which proved interesting to the students.

The class was allowed to carry out its own ideas in creating a suitable Community Drive poster. The resulting decoration was the product of the combined suggestions of the class members.

The display can be described as a map of Greater Boston, cut from wire mesh, edged with twisted rope of blue yarn. Newton is indicated by a circle on the map. White letters made of oil cloth and a refer feether cut out of blotting paper are superimposed on the map. The letters spell the words "DEFEND YOUR COMMUNITY."

One of the interesting features at meetings of the Newton Board of Aldermen is the report made at almost every meeting by the Claims and Rules Committee on the claims and Rules Committee on the claims and Rules Committee almost invariably acts on such claims on the recommendation (or decision) made by the City Solicitor. And most of the recommendations (or decisions) of the City Solicitor are not favorable to the claimants. Anyone seeking damages from the City of Newton must have a strong case before Mr. Bartlett will recommend that the city "come across."

Many of the claims are unreasonable and are properly turned down. Others, in our opinion, that should be paid, are also rejected because the city takes advantage of legal technicalities. Among these are claims presented because of automobiles being hit by city-owned trucks or cars. Under the law, the city need not pay damages for such collisions, even when city employees are not wealty enough to be able to pay damages of any appreciable amount.

Years ago a State law was enacted which permits cities and towns to carry liability insurance on motor vehicles when permits cities and towns to carry liability insurance on motor vehicles owned by the Aldermen (or the City Solicitor) were damaged by city-owned trucks, that our city government might vote to place liability insurance on motor vehicles owned by the Board of Aldermen in paying claims for damages, we refer to a claim acted on at the last meeting of that body. It was from the owner of a house in Newtonville where a copper, hot-water boiler had been ruined because city employees and not notified the cocupants of the house that the water boiler had been ruined because city employees a comparation of the very large of the correct in his country shall be very large of the correct in his control to the large of the correct in his control to the large of the correct in the correct of the correct of the correct of the corre

Mrs. Raymond E. Perkins, hospitality chairman and her committee served dessert and coffee.

Mrs. William M. Flye, art chairman displayed pastel portraits in the lounge by the artist Mary Ludlum Davis who was present to meet members and guests. Mrs. Flye and her committee had an attractive stage setting for the day's program. Dorothy Dwight Hutchinson, guest speaker of the day due to illness was unable to be there. The program chairman secured Jay Wesly, Radio commentator, who gave the audience an interesting lecture on his experiences on the air. Mr. Wesly set up a transmitting machine and interviewed different members of the audience. His interview with the president of the Club Mrs. Austin W. Fisher was recorded and the record presented to her.

Mrs. Edwin Troland, Mrs. Clayton Pearson and Mrs. James Dunlop after being introduced by the President Mrs. Austin W. Fisher, gave brief talks in regard to the work being accomplished by the State Federation and the groups within the 12th district.

Mrs. Edward B. Gray was day chairman and Mrs. Chas. S. Grover in charge of flowers.

REBECCA POMROY HOUSE

The Rebecca Pomroy House of Newton held its annual meeting at the Community Center last week. This organization is a member agency of the Newton Community Chest which has joined the Greater Boston Community Drive.

The year's work of varied activities was outlined by Miss Helen I. Sandstrom, Executive Worker. Over sixteen thousand was the total attendance to forty-five clubs, classes and activities. Some of the colorful and excellent work done under the leadership of thirty-six members of the volunteer and paid staff was on display.

Several girls fashioned some of the articles of clothing made by them under the direction of Miss Filomina Schipani. A group of women directed by Mrs. Margaret Shipman Jamison presented two one-act folk plays. Those taking part included Mrs. Bella Norton, Mrs. Edmund White, Mrs. Louise Delgizzi, Mrs. Walter Carley, Mrs. Ethel Harbinson.

P. T. A. FATHER'S NIGHT

Plans for the expansion and modernization of the Walker-Gordon Laboratory Company's facilities at Charles River Village which were recently acquired by the United Farmers Co-operative Creamery Association include the enlargement of the herd of 300 cows now being milked. Supplemented by a similar number the additions will be drawn from some 2,000 of the finest herds in New England owned by farmers owning stock in the cooperative.

The scope of research work done at the Charles River Laboratory will be broadened and continuation of cooperative research work with the Walker-Gordon plant at Plainsboro, N. J., will be maintained.

Fantasia Provokes Thought of Critics And Movie Public

With a gala premiere opening on Tuesday evening at the Majestic Theatre, Boston, "Fantasia," the much-heralded new Walt Disney production was received with much enthusiasm and astonishment. The combination of movies, music and art which the imagination of Disney has conceived promises to continue to attract the interest of the audience as well as provoke the controversial thought of critics and the public for some time to come.

The interpolations by Deems Taylor serve as a practical means of putting before the audience an explanation of the purposes of each of the numbers on the programs. The Nutcracker Suite by Tchaikovsky with the six dances is most pleasing. Under its spell the imagination discovers why flowers and grasses sparkle, why leaves change color, what snowflakes are and that a clump of thistles or a cluster of mushrooms are not at all what they may seem. Seemingly the artists have achieved the impossible.

Changing its theme almost entirely Fantasia moves on the Sorcerer's Apprentice to the music of Dukas. With Mickey Mouse in the title role this number is a more typical Walt Disney movie short while the music definitely tells the story of the difficulties in which that beloved character finds himself.

Beethoven wrote it but where the composer pictures a quiet brook in the countryside Disney pictures a brook where the winged horse, Pegasus, and his family swim and cavort with one little offspring performing the well-known Dopey role of the Disney "Snow White" production. Fauns and cupids, ce-taurs and centaurettes frolicking in a harvest festival in honor of Bacchus. The portrayal of a storm with Zeus and Vulcan leaning from the clouds and tossing giant thunderbolts to earth followed by the calm with Iris, goddess of the rainbow, Apollo and his chariot of the sun and Diana, who shoots her star-tipped arrow from the crescent moon and the descending cloak of Morpheus bringing sleep to the tired world leave one with an impressionistic effect of the Disney imagination.

The tempo of the music of Ponchielli in the Dance of the Hours provides a delightful setting for the ballerina of Hyacinth Hippo and Elphanchine with a hint of something to come unveiling an illusive mood of breathless desire.

From the light humorous tone of the preceding number Fantasia suddenly leaps into the terrifying mood of Monssorgsky's Night on Bald Mountain where death and destruction howl and shriek with the thunder and tempo of the demons and monsters which he heard racing this music. In pagan times tradition holds that worshippers of evil gathered on the wind-swept summit of Bald Mountain to do homage to the Black God, Tchernobog, Reaching its climax Fantasia finds a distinct contrast in the music of Schubert's "Ave Maria" symbolizing in Fantasia the ever-hoped for peace and good-will and life.

difficulties in which that beloved character finds himself.

Turning to the primitive and dramatic portrayal inspired by Stravinsky's "Rite of Spring" the producers turned to the world of science to picture the first two billion years of life upon this planet, departing from the primitive life in a series of tribal dances and rituals originally represented. The convulsions of a new-born world, cataclysmic upheavals that remoulded the face of the earth and the death battles of incredible monsters combine to provide a terrific impact.

These amounts, plus a $50,000 surplus which was on hand at the surplus which was on hand at the beginning of the year, gives the city a surplus now of about $500,000, in addition to a surplus of $107,000 in the Water Department. From this large amount, the Mayor might recommend the taking of $100,000 for the purpose of reducing the tax rate for 1941.

There will be about $20,000 less needed for the Treasury Department this year because of the retirement of bonds and the resultant savings in interest. The smaller expenditures

Rotary Club

Stating that the pacifist hope for a stalemate in the present conflict since a victory of either side will not be permanent Dr. Clarence R. Skinner, dean of Tufts College School of Religion and the Crane Theological School, presented the case for the pacifist at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club Monday noon at the Brae Burn Country Club.

Dr. Skinner, emphasizing that the views were personal and not those of Tufts College, spoke on "Why I Am a Pacifist." He said the pacifists were not fifth columnists or saboteurs, but that many of them were engaged in non-combatant work in England.

Dr. Skinner gave as the first of three reasons for being a pacifist the fact that science in war or militarism is so far advanced that it can result in complete extinction of the human race. He cited as examples the destruction of Coventry and the blasting of Poland. Furthermore, he said, war was outmoded since culture has passed beyond the stage when force can settle anything. He is stated that when man decides that war is of no use we will shorten the distance between cultural advance and our mental progress.

His third reason against war was that it was morally wrong, since

Police To Seize Slot Machines

On Tuesday Chief of Police Hughes ordered the sergeants of the Newton police department to visit stores throughout the city where it is thought slot machines may be in use, and determine if any of these machines can be classified as gam-bling machines, and are therefore illegal. Complaints have been made that there are slot machines in illegal. Compiants have been made that there are slot machines in stores, including two at Newton Corner which, in the opinions of some persons, are gambling machines. Chief Hughes also has ordered the apprehension of persons engaged in horse racing and number pool gam-bling.

Newton Hospital Filled With Grippe Patients

Although the Newton Hospital has been filled nearly to capacity the past few weeks with patients sick with disease are right and the loser will not submit to the victor's ideas. The speaker mains tained that the Dutch, Belgians and Norwegians would not remain quiests cent and will never adopt Hitleristic Nazism.

According to Dr. Skinner, use or desire to use military force in a war of aggression will be eliminated by the advance of culture. He stated that defense by pacifistic methods will be effective because our minds will have been disciplined. He pointed members of the club to be present and who employed pacific methods will be effective because our minds will have been disciplined. He pointed members of the club to be present at the coming international convention at Denver.

Harry A. Starr of Waltham, district governor, urged the members to attend the mid-year assembly at a shburnham on Thursday. Cameron Beck will be the speaker.

With Grippe Patients

Although the Newton Hospital has been filled nearly to capacity the past few weeks with patients size for the upper respiratory tract, including many victims of the grippe and several colds, the number of pneumonia cases has been over 200 patients at the hospital. Despite the prevalence of the grippe and several colds, the number of pneumonia cases has been about the same as for the corresponding period last year. During the first three weeks of the month, the police ambulance took 66 patients to the hospital.

Newton physicians, nurses and pharmacists have been quite busy the past month because of the thousands who have had the grippe and colds. The epidemic has been of the corresponding period last year.

Newton physicians, nurses and pharmacists have been on the wane for the past week and a half, but many who were victims of it are still in a weakened condition, and coughs are common.

With but three league games left for each team to play in the Suburban league basketball race the title definitely seems headed to Rindge Tech with its record of seven straight victories. The Engineers chalked up their seventh win at Newton on Wednesday turning back the orange and black threat in a 32 to 22 game. As at Rindge three weeks ago the locals kept in the game most of the way, keeping their opponents within four or five points until a fourth period rally sent the Technicians out in front with a ten point margin. The defeat on Wednesday eliminated any possibility that Newton might retain its 1940 championship in the event that a couple of other teams might upset Rindge. The defeat also kept Newton in fourth place with Waltham High creeping closer to the second place Brookline outfit by taking an overtime game from the Wealthy Towners on Tuesday. In this game the Watch City five staged a five-point rally in the extra play period to break a 30-point deadlock and win 35 to 30. Bob Beatty was the leading Newton scorer against Rindge with sev-

Hospital Trustees Elect Officers

The annual meeting of the Newton Hospital Corporation was held on Tuesday night. Frank L. Richardson of Newton Highlands was reelected president of the Board of Trustees; William F. Chase of West Newton, 1st Vice-President; Paul Babson of Wellesley, 2nd Vice-President; C. Raymond Cabot of Newtonville, clerk; W. Elliott Pratt, Jr. of Wellesley, Treasurer. Two new trustees were elected: Benjamin J. Bowen of West Newton, and Clarence McDavitt of Newtonville.

Mr. Richardson stated that the number of patients treated at the hospital is so increasing, that an addition will have to be built in the near future. The present main building of the hospital was erected in 1929 after a campaign in Newton and Wellesley had raised $1,000,000 for its construction and furnishing.

Mayor Paul Goddard of Newton, Harold Wiswall, chairman of the Wellesley Selectmen, and members of the staff of physicians connected with the hospital, were guests. A lecture on ancient buildings in England was given by H. Bernard Robinson, an English artist. W. Elliott Pratt, Jr. gave a report of the activities of the hospital during 1940. Dr. Frank Clark reported for the medical staff, and Miss Bertha Allein, superintendent, for the administrative staff of the hospital.

Only so long as Finland and Spain can withstand Axis demands will the Red Cross, even, be permitted by Britain to pass the blockade. The Finnish consul has informed Chairman Norman H. Davis that yearround shipments can be made to Petsamo, Finland's Arctic port. Britain has given permission for between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000 worth of Red Cross supplies to pass through the blockade.

Part one was a moving picture called "Defend Your Community Now." Part two consisted of a Panel Discussion by ninth graders under the direction of Mr. Frank Tanner. The chairman was Alice Fredey. Other members were Anna Farina, Marcia Marks, Robert Pillsbury, Teresa Crosby and Audrey Ross. Their guest was Mr. James Gallagher, Clerk of the District Court, who answered questions brought up by panel members and pupils. The third part was made up of questions from the floor. Closing remarks by Mr. Gallagher ended the day's program.

"Each one of these acts," Mr. Fawcett continued, "may seem small in itself, but, added all together, they are an outstanding exhibit of the loyalty and devotion of our Fund agencies to the community. Snow or rain, in the coldest and hottest weather, our great agencies stand ready to bring comfort to the sick, care to children and old people, help to distressed people of all races, creeds and nationalities.

"We cannot let these agencies down," Mr. Fawcett concluded. I appeal to every resident of Newton to make the attainment of our Community Chest goal his own personal responsibility—to give as never before—to see to it that their friends and acquaintances have done their share."

At the fifth report meeting of the Campaign Wednesday noon the total raised by the Newton Chest stood at $108,314 or 55 per cent of the total goal. Leading all other divisions was the advance gift division, headed by Maynard Hutchinson with 63 per cent of its quota raised. In order of accomplishment to date, women's division headed by Mrs. Wm. Plumer came next with 60 per cent; the presidential division, Herbert C. Hardy chairman, with 50 per cent; municipal division, Robert A. Whidden chairman, with 24 per cent; Business division, Warren W. Oliver chairman, with 10 per cent.

There will be a general campaign report meeting Friday noon, Jan. 31 and Monday, February 3. The final meeting will be an evening meeting at the Hotel Statler when it is hoped the Newton Community Chest, by reaching its goal, will have been instrumental in the oversubscription of the Greater Boston Community Fund Campaign goal of $4,883,000.

Conger Eel Reaches Ten Feet in Length Often

Eels have been called "snake-like fish," and that is what they really are. Many eels have small scales, but even so their bodies are smooth to the touch, as are snakes.

Eels swim after the manner of snakes, but go much faster.

Usually a full-grown eel is from two to four feet long. There are cases, however, of eels with a length of from 6 to 10 feet.

The female eel yrows larger than

The female eel grows larger than the male. The difference may not amount to much, but among the conger eels it is very great. The female conger may be more than twice the size of a male.

Conger eels are the biggest in the family. Several are on record with Conger eels are the biggest in the family. Several are on record with a length of 9 or 10 feet, and a weight of from 90 to 110 pounds.

A giant conger eel may have a body six inches thick. In its mouth are sharp, closely-placed teeth, and it can bite its enemies with great force. If a fisherman pulls up such an eel, he should take great care. It is a strong fish, and if loose in the boat can do damage.

Conger eels spend all their lives in the sea. In this way they differ from most other eels, which dwell in salt water only part of the time.

Another eel which lives only in salt water is the "thread eel" or "snipe eel." It has a body hardly thicker than a lead pencil, but its length is from two to three feet.

Another queer type is the "spiny eel." Spiny eels live in rivers of Africa and the East Indies. They have many sharp spines along the back.

The jet black "gulper eel" is a

The jet black "gulper eel" is a deep sea fish. It grows to be five or six feet long, and is noted for its strong appetite.

The gulper has a big mouth, and its under jaw can be swung about freely. Sometimes this eel attacks fish which are too big for it to handle. A gulper was found dead at the surface of the ocean, and inside it was a fish of large size.

Great Difference Noted In Musical Instruction

Some interesting comments and sidelights on the teaching of music in the schools and on methods of teaching are made in an interview by Mr. Hubert Martindale of Toby Mr. Hubert Martindale of To-ronto.

First and foremost Mr. Martindale finds a great difference nov against conditions 10 years ago. The teaching of music in the schools in his opinion has wrought a great change for the better and he sees no reason why there should not be a continued improvement.

The main point that is pertinent in his rowarks concerns the method.

The main point that is pertinent in his remarks concerns the method of teaching, for Mr. Martindale belongs to the school that believes in production of sound by means of the vocal cords and air passages in the head. This theory holds that the lips and teeth have nothing to do with voice production, but only to speak the words.

Following up on this theory Mr.

speak the words.

Following up on this theory Mr.

Martindale's idea is that the best preliminary training for music is reading aloud. He contends that many children do not sing well because they do not know how to articulate properly, and that there are many good veices.

many good voices.

Certainly the teaching of music has a fine background effect, even though children never become singers. It is all part of the general cultural effect and certainly a benefit to the child.

of letters written, in an effort to place pupils in positions where they have the best chances for success. The efficient and altruistic efforts of these teachers in this field deserve great commendation.

"The study of Class of 1940 graduates of Office Training, Business and Academic V Curricula (all three essentially terminal) and 13 pupils from the other curricula of the school (College and Academic) reveals the following:

"Of the employed 42 were placed by the school on approved work before graduation in June. The school placed a total of 52. (Also some 18 were placed in the year 1940 to date who have been out of school from 1 to 9 years, making a total of 70 placements.) An additional 70 are self-placed. Several have had two or three jobs since leaving school. "We estimate that some 100 boy and girl graduates of the Class of 1940 in the other curricula (College and Academic 1, 2, 3, 4) have actually made graduation the terminus of their formal training and have had little or no placement service. It is impossible to adequately serve this group under the present plan.

"Also it is interesting to note that Mr. Birmingham interviewed 225 pupils from Class of 1940 and 56 who were out of school but who came back for help, and Mr. Maxim had 172 interviews—pupils from night school, parochial school, and form graduates. During the school year 1939-40, 517 pupils were placed in this type of job. Since September 1 of this year we have had requests for 197 pupils for this work.

Ship Barnacles
Ship barnacles are costly to remove and may cut the speed of a boat in half. To aid in fighting barnacles, Dr. Claude E. ZoBell of the University of California suggests painting ships' bottoms in light colors. He says larvae of barnacles tend to settle on black, dark green, chocolate and red surfaces.

Chamber President Urges That Newton Be Beautified

Vincent C. Stanley, newly elected president of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, advocated at the annual meeting of the Chamber that the organization should endeavor to preserve and build still further Newton's reputation as the "Garden City" of Massachusetts. He said that an early objective is for the city to beautify all vacant city properties, and convert them wherever practical into parks. He said that owners of vacant lots of land should be encouraged to clean all refuse and anything unsightly off such land. He also advocated that city authorities restrict so far as practical, billboard advertising, unnecessary gasoline stations, overhead wires, and anything which detracts from the appearance of the city.

Contest Will of Dr. F. E. Porter

A contest against the will of the late Dr. Francis E. Porter of Auburndale is being made in Middlesex Probate Court by Porter Johnson of Natick, a grand-nephew; and by Damon Porter of Melrose and Edward Porter of Chicago, nephews. They contend that the deceased was not of sound mind when he made his last will in March, 1937. In the will a few minor bequests were made, half of the residue was left to Newton Hospital; and a quarter each to the Auburndale Congregational Church, and Centenary Methodist Church in Auburndale. Counsel for the contestants alleges that Dr. Porter was deaf and blind in one eye.

Dr. Porter died on October 12, 1940 at the age of 96. He had practiced in Auburndale for over 50 years, was one of the original members of the Newton Hospital staff, and served as a trustee of that institution.
